

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

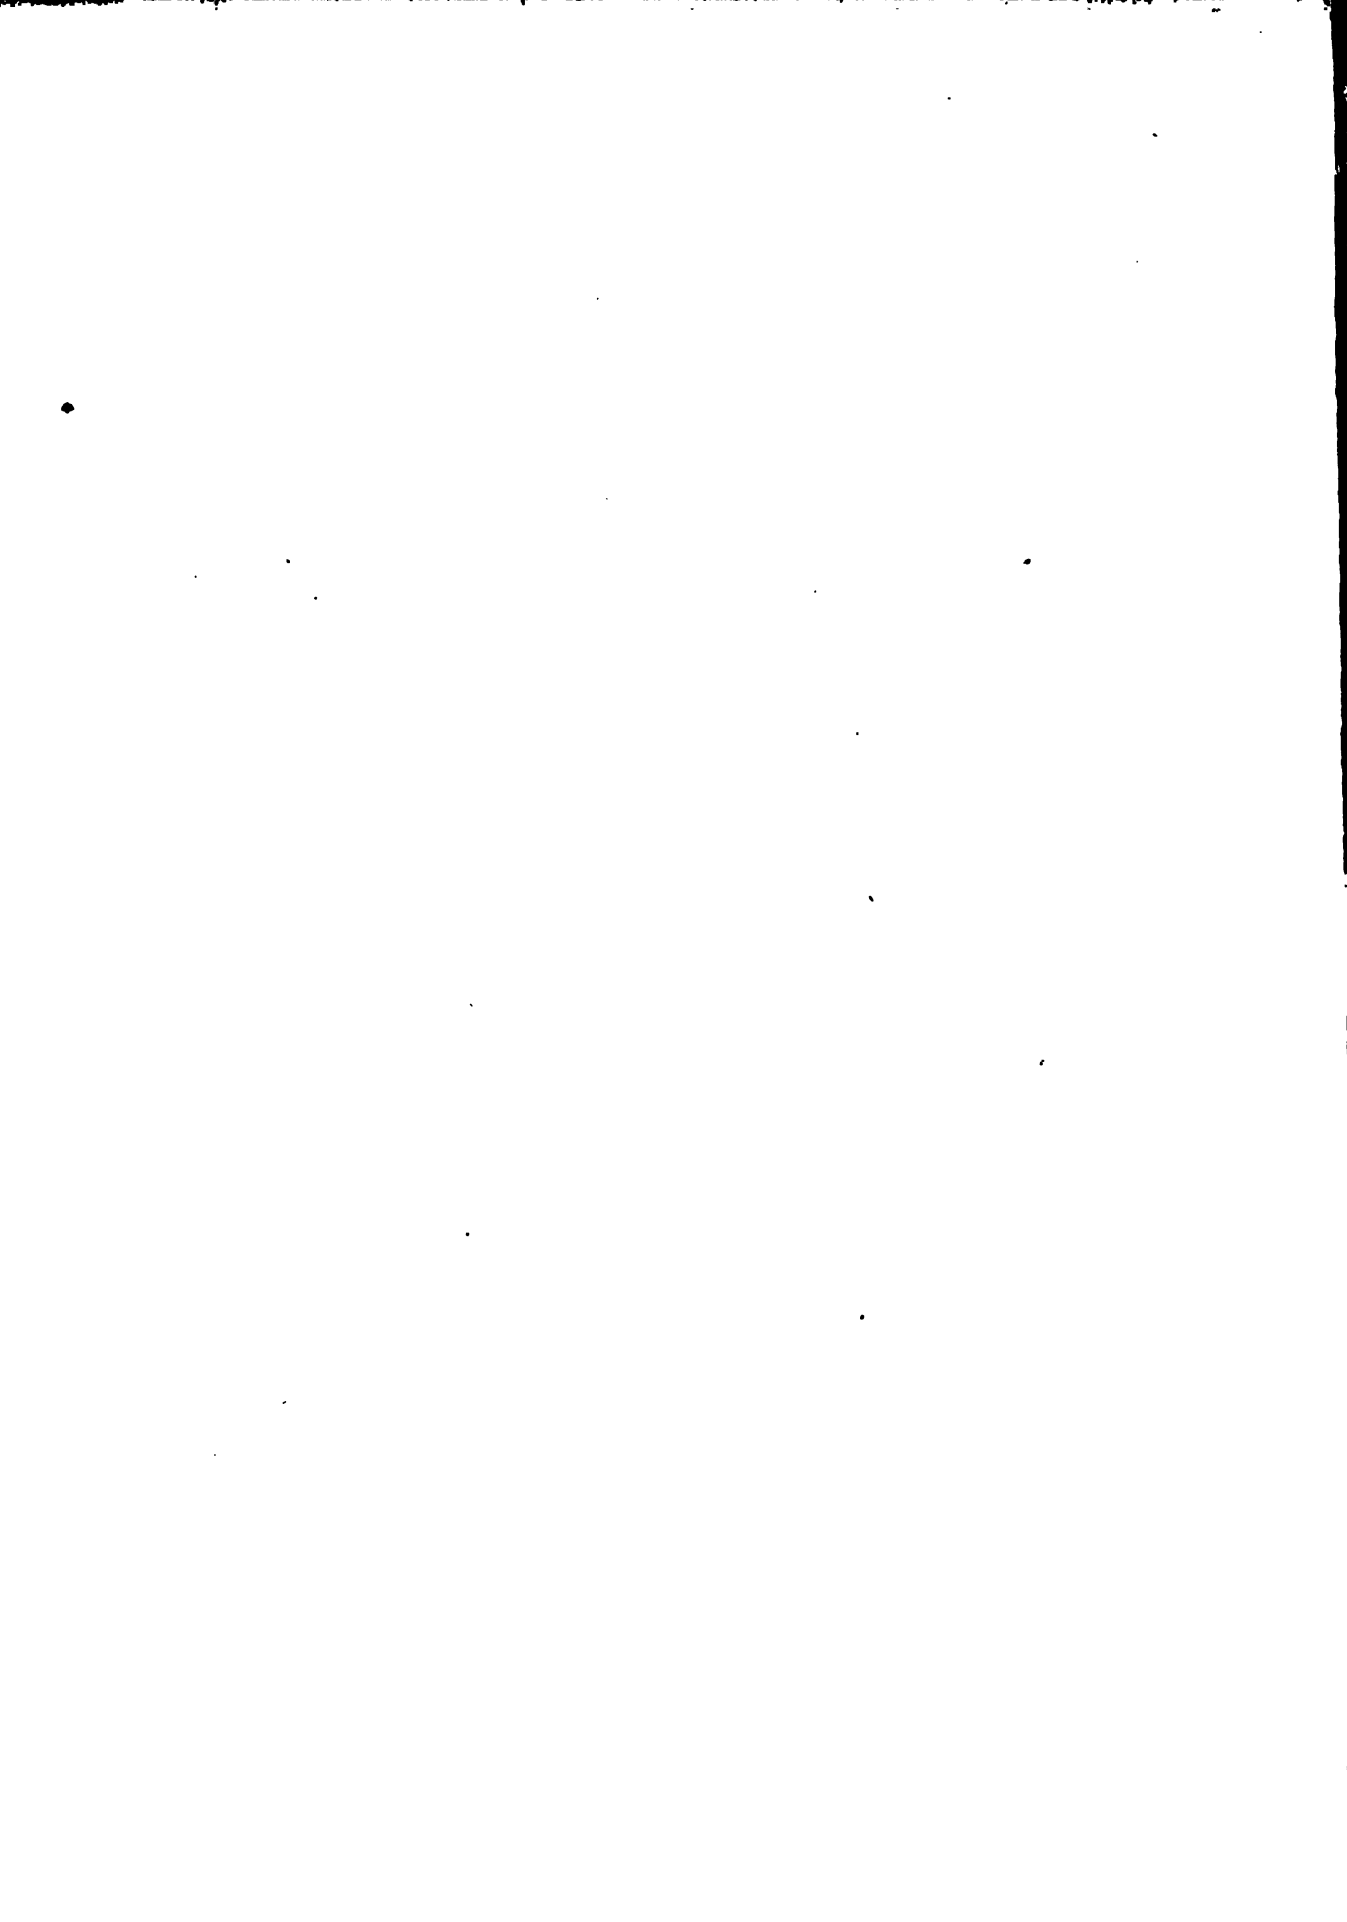

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

PREFACE.

The present Catalogue is the thirteenth which has been issued by the Fraternity during the sixty-seven years of its existence.

The Semi-Centennial Catalogue of 1882 marked a new era in the development of publications of the kind, and far excelled any of its predecessors in completeness and thoroughness of workmanship. The compilers of the present work have taken as a basis the Semi-Centennial Catalogue, have followed as far as possible its system, and hope that in some degree they may have approached its excellence.

The general arrangement is almost precisely the same as in the Semi-Centennial Catalogue. The page is slightly larger, in order to avoid undue thickness. Among the minor modifications are the separation of the Chapter-lists by a bastard title and the addition of running class-numbers at the heads of all pages, to facilitate finding of class-lists. Views of the homes of various Chapters have been added. The building of beautiful and commodious Chapter-houses is one of the directions in which most progress has been made since the semi-centennial year.

It was intended to omit the Military Record of 1861-1865 as a separate article, retaining the data under each member's biographical record. For reasons explained in that part of the book it was decided to make a final reprint of this list.

The biographical record in almost every case of living members has been made more full than in the Catalogue of 1882, and even in case of deceased members much additional information has been given. The biographical records now contain the date of marriage and name of wife. Membership in the Phi Beta Kappa has been mentioned on the same footing as an honorary degree.

The introductory departments of the Semi-Centennial Catalogue entitled "Convention Notes," "Graduate Reunions," and "Alpha Delta Phi Bibliography" have been either condensed or omitted as being not so much within the scope of a Catalogue as of a history of the Fraternity. Since the Catalogue begins to assume such large proportions, the matter of which they treated must necessarily be relegated to another work which will doubtless be undertaken by the Fraternity hereafter. Certain information, however, has been retained for convenience of reference.

The rules given in the following pages are reprinted with little modification from the Catalogue of 1882, and will explain the plan which has been followed.

PLAN OF THE WORK.

The unit of arrangement adopted in this Catalogue is the Chapter, and the unit within the Chapter is the class or year. The membership of each Chapter is given complete, the same rule being followed in the lists of Military Service and Kin. Each member who has ever enjoyed active relations with a Chapter is given under it, although his final relations may have been with another Chapter. This has led to a number of repetitions, and it is often the case that the later entry contains the fullest detail. In the Index of Names all the different Chapters to which members belonged are given in the order of time. The last is in every case but one — W. B. Rankine, Geneva, '77 — the Chapter to which the member now belongs. Within each Chapter, the members are arranged by classes exclusively, an order specifically directed by the Convention of 1854, implicitly followed for a few years, and then abandoned in part. Each member is assigned to his graduation year, or to the year of his admission as determined at initiation. In Johns Hopkins Chapter the year refers solely to the year of initiation or in which he became connected with the Chapter. The only arbitrary arrangement is in the cases of Timothy Dwight Eells, Hudson, and of Edward Patterson, Columbia. In the Chapter record, the names of those receiving a post-graduate election are entered in italics. Early in the history of the Fraternity the line between graduate and non-graduate membership was by no means closely drawn. The early prosperity and success of many of our Chapters turned upon the earnest support of young graduates in the vicinage, often members of the College Faculty, elected after receiving a degree. In Dartmouth an entire class, which shared in the establishment of the Chapter, enjoyed active relations with it in spite of graduation, and their names appear in Roman. In Geneva, Hudson and Bowdoin, the post-graduate members at the head of each Chapter were, with one exception, all elected in the early years of the Chapter, immediately after their leaving College and while the relation of these members to the interests and activities of student life was intimate and immediate.

The record of each member consists of the full baptismal name and the residence. Where a baptismal name has been dropped it is given in brackets; where, as in a number of cases, all but the first letter has been dropped, the remainder of the name is bracketed. In all cases where a single letter stands without a period, it is a name, not an initial. In its large number of letter names the present Catalogue illustrates, as have other like issues, the growth of this new practice in nomenclature — a source of perplexity to the cataloguer and toil to the proofreader — whose commencement is to be regretted, and whose spread is to be deplored. In all classes from 1899 to 1902, inclusive, a dagger is prefixed to the names of those who have left College, or who are not studying for the degree of A.B. or its equivalent. Each member in classes of and before 1898, whose name is not prefixed by a †, has taken the degree of A.B. or an equivalent grade at the institution where the Chapter is situated, and in the year to which his class belongs. If this degree has been taken elsewhere, the dagger is prefixed, and the extra-graduation recorded in the lines below. If the degree has been taken at the same institution, but in some other year, the dagger is omitted, and the year of graduation noted below. Under this arrangement the name of a member who has belonged to more than one Chapter is frequently preceded by a dagger in one Chapter and not in the other. In designating institutions it has been the aim of the cataloguer to use the term most generally known. As the entries are the work of many hands a lack of uniformity is sometimes apparent. Andover and several other Theological Seminaries give no degrees, a fact often overlooked in Catalogues. The fact of graduation has, in this Catalogue, been noted with other degrees.

Street addresses have been given wherever supplied by the members. In the greater metropolis, now known legally as The City of New York, the post office usage has been followed. Addresses in the boroughs of Manhattan and of The Bronx are therefore written as "New York, N. Y.," while those in the borough of Brooklyn are written "Brooklyn, N. Y.," no reference being made to The City of New York, as a political subdivision.

It was the original purpose to make the entry beneath the name give only the present occupation, the collegiate degrees, the public offices and the military service, if any, of members. Information far in excess of this requirement was found to be at the service of the Committee, and the record will be found in many hundreds of cases to be as full as need ever be presented, while the vast majority of entries give a partial outline of the lives of members. Throughout, and in accordance with the original plan, the present occupation is given first. The Catalogue date is as near as may be, July 1, 1898, and the biographical entry is presented as a record of the occupations of the living on that date, and the last recorded vocation of the dead, with, in most cases, the date on which the calling began. The date adopted has, however, been in no case allowed to interfere with the insertion of additional information. Throughout, no rule has been permitted to prevent the addition of specific facts in regard to one member which would not be given of all.

A separate list of those initiated between July 1, 1898, and June 1, 1899, has been added, bringing the Name-Index down to the latter date.

CHARTER OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, 1879.

CHAPTER 245.

AN ACT to incorporate The Executive Council of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, and to provide for the organization of subordinate chapters.

Passed May 5, 1879.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. John Jay, Theodore W. Dwight, Algernon S. Sullivan, Erasmus Darwin Hudson, Jr., Edward Morse Shepard and Francis Lynde Stetson, all of the city of New York, and all persons who are now or may hereafter become associated with them or their successors, are hereby constituted and created a body politic and corporate by the name and title of "The Executive Council of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity," and as such shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable of suing and being sued in all courts of record and elsewhere, and of taking by gift, bequest, devise or purchase, as well as of holding, granting and conveying property, real, personal or mixed, to an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; to have and use a common seal and break and alter the same at pleasure; and also to provide for the organization of such chapters as it may see fit under such rules, by-laws and regulations as the said The Executive Council may establish, and with such powers as it shall give, consistent with this act and not in conflict with the laws of this State.

§ 2. The objects of such corporation shall be to promote morality, learning, benevolence and social culture among the members of the said fraternity, and to take charge of its property and business interests.

§ 3. The said The Executive Council shall have power to make from time to time such by-laws, rules and regulations as it may deem proper as to the members, names and duties of its officers or trustees, and as to the time and manner of their election and their term of office; and also as to the mode of acquiring and of losing membership in the corporation hereby created; and also as to the mode of conducting the business and the affairs of the said corporation; and generally as to all matters within the objects hereinbefore stated, and not in conflict with the laws of this State.

§ 4. In case the said The Executive Council shall provide for the giving of a bond or obligation by any officer, member or subordinate chapter thereof, the same may be made to the said "The Executive Council of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity."

§ 5. The principal office of the said The Executive Council shall be in the city of New York; and it shall be the duty of such council in the month of January, in each year, to file a statement of its officers in the office of the clerk of the city and county of New York; and actions against the corporation hereby constituted may be commenced by the service of the summons upon any one of the persons mentioned in the statement so filed last, before the beginning of such action.

§ 6. This shall be deemed and held a general act, and shall take effect immediately.

THE HAMILTON CHAPTER.

HAMILTON.

THE HAMILTON CHAPTER,

1832 TO 1901.

Annals.

In the winter of 1831-32 five students of Hamilton College came together in an upper chamber, after the evening lamps were lighted, to devise a method of helping each other forward in their study and culture and preparation for the future. They felt the need of warmer nutriment for their souls than that furnished by the drilled dry lessons of the class-room. Yielding to a good inspiration, which sometimes teaches the inexperienced to plan and build more wisely than they know, these five young men banded themselves together in a life-long league which had in it the seeds of a wide-spread institution. The names of the five students were: Samuel Eells, who died in Cincinnati in 1842; Lorenzo Latham, who died in New Orleans in 1860; Henry Lemuel Storrs, whose death, in 1852, closed the earthly career of an eloquent and devoted minister; Oliver Andrew Morse, who died in 1870; and John C. Underwood, whose death occurred in 1873. In this movement Samuel Eells exercised a controlling influence. When he entered college there were in the institution two literary societies, the Phoenix and the Philopseuthian. The strong rivalry between these two societies was not infrequently inflamed into a feeling of hostility and bitterness. The evils connected with this state of things suggested to the mind of Mr. Eells the establishing of a "society of a higher nature and more comprehensive and higher principle." He meditated long and in private over the principles and the plan of the organization. In 1830 it existed only in idea; but in the fall of that year events occurred which induced him to hasten the attempt to clothe the idea with the outward form of reality. A few of the leading members of the two literary societies were approached with caution and finally admitted to his confidence. All approved of the plan and pledged themselves to the work. The first meeting was held in Mr. Eells' room, No. 15, Kirkland Hall. It was a meeting for consultation only, and no presiding officer was appointed, nor were any minutes taken. At a subsequent meeting Lorenzo Latham and Samuel Eells were appointed a committee to report a constitution and a badge. The whole of the constitution as at first adopted was drawn up by Mr. Eells. It is apparent from this sketch that the beginnings of Alpha Delta Phi are veiled to some extent in that obscurity which surrounds the origin of almost all institutions. It did not spring at once into full-grown manhood, but developed and matured until, in 1832, it attained its complete proportions.

This history would be very incomplete if it failed to include some sketch of the brilliant founder of our order.

Samuel Eells was born in Westmoreland, Oneida County, New York, on the 18th of May, 1810. He was a born leader of men. His nature was ardent and affectionate, and he exerted a powerful influence either by the kindness of his heart or by the force of his mind and character. He possessed to a rare degree that quality which is called personal magnetism. He developed in early life remarkable talents for composition and declamation, which gave some intimation of the brilliant oratorical powers which were to follow. His mind was rapid in its action; his habits of thought logical; his scholarship varied and accurate. In addition to this he possessed a rare grace of expression; an imagination naturally vivid and quickened by an intimate acquaintance with literature and art; and a profound faith which compelled conviction. He entered upon life with a slender stock of strength, which the restless energy of his career gave him no time to increase. He was admitted to college in 1827, but in a few months his failing health compelled him to seek new vigor from the sea-air and an ocean voyage.

In 1828 he returned to Hamilton with renewed powers; and, after a college course marked with unusual promise, was graduated in 1832 with the highest honor of his class. In 1835 he began the practice of law in Cincinnati. His success was assured. In less than a year Salmon P. Chase had asked Mr. Eells to become his partner. His professional career covers only the five short years which followed, until 1840; but they were years full of splendid achievement and still more splendid promise. In November, 1840, with health sadly impaired, he sought a southern climate. He was never again able to resume work, and on Sabbath morning, May 13, 1842, he died, at the age of thirty-two. "His highest title," said Mr. Chase, "was Christian."

The internal history of the mother-Chapter has been uneventful. At the close of the first half-century of her existence she was provided with a beautiful home. Largely through the liberality of Mr. Dan P. Eells, a brother of our founder, together with numerous and, in the aggregate, large contributions from other sons of Alpha Delta Phi, a "Memorial Hall" was erected and completed, and the mother-Chapter held her semi-centenary celebration under the shelter of her own roof.

In 1897 the "Alpha Delta Phi Scholarship" was founded by the liberality of Bro. Clarence A. Seward, Geneva, '48, President of the Fraternity, and is held by an undergraduate member of Hamilton Chapter in perpetuity, the Executive Council being trustees of the fund.

A partial list of the honors won in college life by the Chapter is given below.

THE MIAMI CHAPTER.

THE MIAMI CHAPTER,

1835 TO 1873.

Annals.

It was through the personal effort of Samuel Eells that the Miami Chapter was established. It appears from the "Memorial" of the founder of the society, that in February, 1835, he came to Cincinnati to commence the practice of the law. In September, 1836, he delivered his first public address before the Miami Chapter of AJΦ at its first anniversary. The Chapter, then, must have been established in the month of September, 1835. The following facts relative to its establishment were communicated by the late William S. Groesbeck, of Cincinnati, and the late John B. Temple, of Louisville, Ky.

Samuel Eells came to Cincinnati carrying a letter introducing him to Mr. Groesbeck, who had, the year before, been graduated at Miami University, and was then engaged in the study of law in Cincinnati. They immediately became friends. Mr. Eells laid before his new friend his scheme for founding among college students a society which should "be national and universal in its adaptations, so as not merely to cultivate a taste for literature, or furnish the mind with knowledge, but with a true philosophical spirit looking to the entire man, so as to develop his whole being,—moral, social and intellectual." Mr. Groesbeck approved of the plan, and consented to aid Mr. Eells in his undertaking, and was, thereupon, duly initiated, by Mr. Eells, in the law office in which Mr. Groesbeck was at that time studying.

Miami University was at that time the most celebrated institution of learning in the West, and Mr. Groesbeck, having just graduated there, was acquainted with all the students who would probably be available for membership in a society such as Mr. Eells had in view. He suggested certain names to Mr. Eells of those who seemed the most promising of the members of the University, and a correspondence was immediately commenced with them relative to the establishment of the society. This resulted in Charles L. Telford and John B. Temple coming to Cincinnati for initiation into the society. Mr. Temple, in a lengthy letter, says of this: "Brother Eells, by correspondence with Charles L. Telford, induced him, with his classmate John B. Temple, to visit Cincinnati; and in their room at the Dennison House initiated them as members of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, and thus laid the foundation of Miami Chapter, which they organized immediately on their return to Oxford."

Of the first public appearance of the organization in Miami University, Brother Temple writes: "Soon after the organization, in the fall of 1835 and ensuing winter, and when the membership was about nine, it was thought prudent to bring the existence of the society to the knowledge of the faculty and students of the college, and it was arranged that notice of a meeting should by request be read at morning prayers by the president. He accordingly announced the meeting of the Alpha and Delta and Phi society, manifestly to cast some ridicule upon the announcement. In a few days the members appeared with badge breastpins, and at once a very pronounced opposition to the organization was manifested by the students, although they were ignorant of the character and aim of the society."

It was attempted to make this opposition to the society effective by excluding any future members from admission to the literary societies of the university, of which there were two. Resolutions to this effect were passed and rescinded, and again passed. When they were made final, the members of Alpha Delta Phi quietly resigned from these societies, and, taking with them a goodly number of those who did not belong to their organization, proceeded to form another literary society, similar to those which they had left. The new literary society flourished, and finally absorbed one of the old ones; whereupon the other expunged from their minutes the resolution prohibiting the admission of Alpha Delta Phis, and the opposition ceased.

Alpha Delta Phi soon became one of the institutions of Miami University, and flourished for a period of thirty-eight years from its establishment. During these years many other societies were instituted, with varying success, some of them becoming rivals of Alpha Delta Phi, but nothing occurred during the existence of the Chapter, after it became an established fact, that was peculiar in its nature or of uncommon occurrence in the ordinary course of under-graduate life.

In June, 1873, Miami University was closed to students for an indefinite period, and with it the Miami Chapter ceased to exist. The membership of the Chapter was never large; but we believe that it may be said of the members, that what they lacked in numbers to make them strong they more than made up in enthusiasm for and loyalty to their society. They always felt a pride in the fact that their Chapter had been established by the founder of the society himself, and it was with the deepest regret that, with their ranks still filled, they saw their old Chapter take its place amongst those whose active functions are suspended.

During the first year of the existence of the Chapter, it is believed that thirteen members were initiated, the names of whom it has been thought proper to place at the head of the membership list, as charter members.

Five brothers, who between the years 1838 and 1840 received elections while students in the Cincinnati Law School, were, until the publication of the Catalogue of 1860, regarded as a separate Chapter, though no charter was ever issued to them. In 1860 they were arbitrarily assigned to those classes of Miami whose ΑΙΦ delegations were smallest. Before this assignment was made, all but one of these five were dead, and that one died more than twenty-five years ago. Under these circumstances it has been thought best to leave undisturbed an arrangement, however misleading, which has been acquiesced in for thirty-eight years.

The names of these brothers, and their assigned classes in Miami, are: Brush and Gallagher, '44; James, '46; Perkins, '50; Pugh, '51.

THE URBAN CHAPTER.

THE URBAN CHAPTER,

1835 TO 1839.

Annals.

The Urban Chapter, connected with the University of the City of New York, was established, as were the first five chapters of the Fraternity, through the efforts of graduate members of the Hamilton Chapter, or undergraduates who had left that college for other institutions; in the case of Urban, Daniel Huntington, Hamilton, '36, who on Christmas Eve, 1835, under power conferred upon him by the mother Chapter, initiated Arthur Cleveland Coxe, a student in the University, afterwards the distinguished bishop of Western New York. These two then formally established the new Chapter, and others were speedily added to the number. At first the organization was known as the "Red Ribbon," to distinguish its members from the "White Ribbon," of Columbia; but, in 1836, the name "Urban Chapter" was adopted. John Jay and John Henry Hobart were initiated for the purpose of enabling them to found a Chapter in Columbia College, in which they succeeded. Similarly, in accordance with the then existing law, Messrs. Conger, Dod and Bailey, students in "Nassau Hall College," Princeton, N. J., were initiated with the intention of perpetuating the Fraternity in that institution; but this purpose was not carried out for reasons not now known, as all three have died. Urban Chapter also assisted in the establishment of Chapters at Yale, Harvard and Brown Universities.

In 1839 the charter was voluntarily surrendered by the Chapter, for reasons which were regarded as sufficient. The recent moving of the University to new and extensive grounds, in the northerly portion of the city, with the gratifying increase in its endowment and equipment, encourage the friends of what was once a promising Chapter, in the hope that an early day will see Urban once more resume her place in the sisterhood of Alpha Delta Phi.

After the lapse of three-score years, in which Urban, almost alone among the Chapters of an ever-crescent Fraternity, numbers four-fifths of its members among those whose connection with it has been transferred by death, but little remains to be told of the fortunes of the Urban Chapter. The late Raymond Hoyt Seeley, '39, has added to its annals his own personal reminiscences of the Chapter. "The Urban Chapter," he writes, "had a brief but not inglorious existence. As it met but a few times after my connection with it, my recollections of its proceedings are neither numerous nor very distinct. I remember, however, that some choice men were in its ranks; and that its meetings abounded in good fellowship, and were both profitable and interesting. I recall one occasion on which representatives from the Columbia Chapter met with us, and among them were Mr. John Henry Hobart, son of the distinguished bishop of that name, and Mr. John Jay, since then Ambassador of the United States at the court of Austria. The evening was well occupied, and was memorable in our annals.

"Soon after the Commencement, in the summer of 1839, the members of our Chapter were scattered. The most of them, I think, removed from the city. No meeting has since been held; and it is probable that some of them have entered the realm of mystery beyond us. Yet the hearts of the living members are loyal; and it may not be out of place to suggest the propriety of having one more gathering, that we may brighten the memories of 'auld lang syne,' and mingle our tears of sympathy over our departed comrades, while we once more pledge ourselves to each other, and take courage for that part of our earthly career which is still before us."

THE COLUMBIA CHAPTER.

THE COLUMBIA CHAPTER,

1836 TO 1901.

Annals.

In 1836, when the Fraternity of Alpha Delta Phi was but four years old, she established her fourth Chapter at Columbia College. This Chapter, since known as the Columbia Chapter, was founded by John Jay, then a Senior in Columbia College. Mr. Jay associated with himself his classmate, John Henry Hobart, and these two undergraduates, having been duly initiated, held their first meeting on the evening of June 16, 1836. This meeting was presided over by Arthur Cleveland Coxe, then an active member of the Urban Chapter, connected with the University of the City of New York. The Columbia Chapter began that night to exert an influence which has since been felt in the pulpit, in foreign courts, on the bench, at the bar, in the Legislature, in the professor's chair and in business. At that session there were initiated: Harvey Augustus Weed, '36; Giles Mumford Hillyer, '36; Henry McVickar, '36, and Nathaniel William Chittenden, '37.

At this time the Alpha Delta Phi stood alone in Columbia, and the rapid growth and increasing influence of this secret brotherhood served only to deepen the jealousy of the uninitiated. At length the Chapter numbered thirty-three, nearly all of whom remained active members to the last, and their progress excited such unpleasant feelings between classmates that the Chapter returned its charter to the archives of the Fraternity, having reached the fourth year of its existence.

An interval of forty years now succeeded, during which the original members attained eminence in their several callings. Six entered the ministry; seventeen pursued the study of law and acquitted themselves with distinction; one of whom, John Jay, worthily and efficiently represented his country as United States Minister Plenipotentiary to Austria. Three of them were elevated to the bench: Samuel Blatchford, who declined the Judgeship of the Supreme Court of New York, in 1855, when so appointed by Governor Morgan H. Clark, but who was afterwards Circuit Judge of the United States for the Second Judicial Circuit and Justice of the United States Supreme Court; John Vanderbilt, at one time New York State Senator, and afterwards Judge of the County of Kings, N. Y.; and James Walker Fowler, Justice of the District Court in the City of New York, for the Third Judicial District. Two have filled the professor's chair with well-merited success in New York — John MacMullen and William Henry Leggett. Two became bankers, well known in Wall-street circles.

From time to time applications for a charter of Alpha Delta Phi were received from students of Columbia College; but none, however, met the entire approval of the Fraternity until the reception of the petition of the reorganizers of the Chapter.

With the surviving brothers and the Fraternity at large to encourage them, eight undergraduates assumed the task of reëstablishing Alpha Delta Phi in Columbia. The initiation ceremony took place Wednesday evening, May 18, 1881, in the Masonic Temple, corner of 23d street and 6th avenue. It was conducted by representatives from the following sister Chapters: Hamilton, Yale, Amherst, Harvard, Geneva, Peninsular, Dartmouth, Williams, Manhattan, Middletown, Kenyon, Union, Cornell and Phi Kappa.

The Chapter had a steady up-hill fight until 1889, when it took, and has since held, first place among Columbia's fraternities.

Columbia University moves to its new site during the present year, and Columbia Chapter is now looking for a suitable location for a permanent home. Already quite a sum has been raised for a house and it is to be hoped that the day is not far off when the Chapter will have its house-warming.

183 MEMBERS.

THE YALE CHAPTER.

THE YALE CHAPTER,

1837 to 1900.

Annals.

The Yale Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, like its three older sisters, Miami, Urban and Columbia, was established by members of the Hamilton Chapter, who carried thence their authority. Its charter members were, accordingly, themselves initiates, and its first recognition by the Fraternity in convention assembled antedates by nearly a year the time generally assigned to its foundation, its first meeting having been held before that of Columbia, although the latter received an earlier charter.

Represented by Seth Tryon Wilbur in the first Fraternity convention held with Hamilton at Utica, July 27, 1836, the Chapter continued in active existence for thirty-seven years. There appeared at first, indeed, a spirit of good-natured opposition in Yale, but the fact that this gave birth to a burlesque society whose six and a quarter cent tin badge bore an imitation of our star and crescent, and whose constitution provided that there should be no officers and "that each member should do as he had a mind," made Alpha Delta Phi the subject of kindly interest rather than unfriendly ridicule to the college world.

From its inception the Chapter strove worthily to maintain the ideals of the Fraternity. Every member felt strongly the responsibility of the proper performance of his share of serious labor, and if there possibly existed an over-abundant spirit of self-congratulation and mutual admiration, there was at least reasonable ground for pride in the character of the membership and in the accomplishment of literary work of a true and genuine order.

For many years meetings were held in a hall on the southwest corner of Chapel and State streets, and in 1869 this was so refitted as to enjoy for some time thereafter the reputation of being the finest occupied by the Fraternity.

As a natural consequence of its numbers and character, and of the prestige of its connection with a prominent institution, the Yale Chapter took an important part in Fraternity government and the shaping of its policy. The Brunonian Chapter was established by a Yale delegation, and the conversion of the local society, IIIK, at Amherst into a Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was likewise largely due to Yale influence and effort. The first song-book and, with two exceptions, all the catalogues, until 1860, were likewise issued from Yale, while at the second convention, held in New Haven, Aug. 15, 1839, was delivered an address by Samuel Eells, which was the first of those public exercises that have now become a normal part of the annual celebration of most Fraternities.

As a result of most unfortunate complications induced by the political and social conditions of Yale life, this Chapter suspended its activity in the spring of 1873, and voluntarily surrendered its charter at a convention held at Cornell in the same year. This action had been contemplated for several years. It was finally taken, after a conference between the members of Yale and Amherst, induced by the deep and universal loyalty to the Fraternity, which prefers to its own advantage the success and progress of Alpha Delta Phi. But the same spirit kept faithful watch and ward over the sleeping treasure-house of truth and tradition, and when, in the spring of 1888, a small but earnest band sought the honor of entering its gates and bringing new life therein, having proved the sincerity of their purposes and desires, they received, with heartfelt welcome, a new charter, the symbol of their trust. During the several years which followed was seen what is perhaps one of the most interesting parts of the history of the Fraternity. These charter members of the new Chapter had necessarily assumed a heavy burden of responsibility in their attempt, through new success, to overcome the memories of a past failure; but this was a less formidable condition than the opposition which at once manifested itself when it was announced that the Chapter would draw its members from all of the four classes in conformity with the general custom of other colleges. Yale had so long been accustomed to the so-called class society system, and this had so permeated the whole of the University life, that a departure therefrom seemed to many of her sons a movement opposed to her dearest and most vital traditions. Accordingly it soon became apparent that any advances towards success must be made at the expense of laborious, vigilant and often disappointing and fruitless effort. The loyal energy of every brother was promptly bent to this work, and out of such coöperation arose a very true and deep spirit of mutual friendship, and a rare devotion for Alpha Delta Phi.

Gradually, however, it became apparent that while this struggle might produce an unusual degree of internal strength, it was at variance with the best principles of the Fraternity — principles which require the broadest and most harmonious development of every brother, and that while a reasonable degree of success might be finally attained, college feeling was such as to isolate our membership and embitter what would otherwise be a fruitful and happy University life. Accordingly, in the winter of 1893-94, committees from Psi Upsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon, existing in Yale as junior societies, met one from Alpha Delta Phi to discuss a plan by which the Yale Chapter should also become a junior society, and the three should amicably coöperate in their choice of future candidates for election. No conclusion was finally reached, but in the winter of 1894-95 the conference was again renewed and the importance of determining the question according to the suggestion there made became so apparent that the Chapter entered into an agreement with the two societies named to adopt the proposed policy, provided the consent of the Fraternity could be obtained at its next convention. Before this convention, held with the Columbia Chapter in May, 1895, the Yale delegates laid the whole matter, and, after a very serious consideration, their proposition was approved by an almost unanimous vote. The result of this step was immediate and far-reaching. Alpha Delta Phi became, within a short time, the leading Fraternity of Yale, gaining the confidence of the University, while retaining its own spirit of enthusiastic and earnest loyalty.

This spirit seems to promise that upon the future pages of her honor-roll will stand the names of men no less distinguished in their intellectual and moral attainment than those whose names dignify the following list, and who, bearing loyally forward the blue banner of old Yale, will, nevertheless, stand ready to maintain and defend with steadfast purpose and manly zeal the honor of the green and white of Alpha Delta Phi.

THE AMHERST CHAPTER.

AMHERST.

THE AMHERST CHAPTER,

1837 TO 1901.

Annals.

The germ of the Amherst Chapter of ΑΔΦ was a society known as the IIIK. This was an association for the study of history, and was formed on Sept. 14, 1835, by eleven members of the class of 1837. The IIIK society flourished, in spite of the opposition of the uninitiated, for about a year, until two members of ΑΔΦ from Yale, namely, Charles J. Lynde and William B. Peck, came to Amherst and opened negotiations with the members of IIIK for the establishment of a Chapter of our Fraternity. Their propositions met with little favor at first; but one by one the IIIK's were gained over to ΑΔΦ and continued members of both fraternities for two or three months. During this period there was frequent discussion regarding the merits of the two societies, but at last all, except two of the local organization, voted that the constitution of IIIK be held void, and that of ΑΔΦ adopted in its stead.

The first meeting of the Chapter, as such, was held in the room of one of its members on Jan. 9, 1837. Soon afterwards a room on the fourth floor of South College was obtained for the use of the society, and this continued to be the home of the Chapter till the winter of 1841-42, when the society moved to the second story of what is now North College, where it had its headquarters for more than twenty years.

Perhaps the most important event in the early history of the Amherst Chapter was its conflict with the Faculty of the College. The existence of a secret society had been viewed with suspicion for several years, but it was not until 1842 that a formal demand was made for an examination of the constitution and records. This was refused by the Chapter, the brothers declaring their willingness to leave College rather than be false to their pledge. After several attempts to gain access to the records of the society, the Faculty allowed the matter to drop for the time being, thinking that the loss of so many students would be a serious blow to the College in its comparatively feeble state. Three years later the demand was again renewed, and, after much discussion, neither side being willing to yield, the question was finally set at rest by the initiation of Dr. Hitchcock, the President of the College, on Nov. 15, 1845. Since that time the relations of the Chapter and the Faculty have been always of the most friendly character.

During the first five years of the Chapter's history its membership was confined to the Senior and Junior classes. But the advent of another fraternity, in 1841, and the rivalry which sprang up between the two societies, compelled the admission of Sophomores and Freshmen. Since that time the Chapter has consisted of members of all four classes, chosen, for the most part, at the beginning of Freshman year. Until 1879, however, the two lower delegations did not wear the badge of the Fraternity.

The growth of the Chapter turned the attention of the brothers, in 1857, to the necessity of securing a larger and more convenient place for holding their meetings; but it was several years before sufficient money was raised to enable them to carry out their wishes. The upper half of a two-story block located near the post-office, on the principal street of the village, was purchased and fitted up for the use of the Chapter. The first meeting in the new hall was held on Oct. 30, 1863, and it continued in use until its destruction by fire, in 1879.

Although provided with a comfortable place of meeting, the brothers had long felt the desirability of a home where a large part of the members could lodge together and the social element of Chapter life be more fully brought out. Accordingly, in 1873, they entered into negotiations to secure a house and grounds. These efforts resulted in the purchase of a Chapter House, in 1874, and the society took possession of its new property in August, 1875. This Chapter House was the first in Amherst, and among the first in all the colleges. It marked a new era in fraternity life. It continues to be the home of a number of the members.

The great fire on the morning of July 4, 1879, which swept away the business part of Amherst, did not spare AJΦ. The hall, around which so many pleasant memories had gathered, was entirely destroyed; but the Chapter had the good fortune to save all its records. The pecuniary loss was largely covered by insurance. Immediately after the fire the society fitted up a place of meeting in the Chapter House.

This continued to be the home of the Fraternity until the new Chapter House was built (1889-90). It is a fine stone and brick building occupying a commanding situation near the old house. Its appointments are ample for all the needs of the Fraternity for many years to come.

A signal event in the annals of AJΦ was the gift (July 2, 1889) of a memorial fund for the establishment of the Roswell Dwight Hitchcock Scholarship, the interest of this fund to be paid in the form of one or more fellowships, scholarships, or prizes to a student or to students of the Senior Class for the pursuit of graduate study. This gift is a strong link in the bond of union between the Fraternity and the College.

In connection with the commencement of 1887 the Amherst Chapter of AJΦ celebrated its first semi-centennial. It was the occasion of the largest gathering of alumni brothers in the history of the Chapter. Many brothers from other Chapters were also present. A full account of this celebration is given in a book entitled "Amherst Alpha Delta Phi."

Up to 1881 the business affairs of the Chapter had been conducted by the Chapter itself, or by trustees whom it appointed; but in July of that year incorporation under the laws of the State was secured. The management is now vested in a board of directors, elected both from the alumni and the undergraduates.

Such is a brief outline of the external progress of the Amherst Chapter. To its high stand in scholarship the following partial list of college awards received abundantly witnesses. Of fifty-four valedictory honors (or equivalent in cases where the valedictorian was chosen by lot, two or more men having the same rank) from 1838 to 1880,* AΔΦ has taken twenty-nine; and of forty-three salutatorians, in the same period, this society has had twenty. At fourteen commencements both valedictorian and salutatorian have come from the same society. AΔΦ has taken this double honor twelve times out of the fourteen. Of the twenty-eight Hyde Prizes for Senior Orators given since their commencement with the class of 1870, AΔΦ has had ten. Of the Bond Prizes, for best Commencement Orations, AΔΦ has secured eight. Of the Porter Prizes, for best Entrance Examinations, out of thirty-five given, this Chapter has had ten. Of the fifty-two Kellogg Prizes, given to Sophomores and Freshmen for declamation at public trial, eleven have gone to AΔΦ. Of two hundred and sixty contestants for these prizes (chosen also by competition), sixty-two have been members of this Chapter.

THE BRUNONIAN CHAPTER.

THE BRUNONIAN CHAPTER,

1836 TO 1901.

Annals.

The Brunonian Chapter places the date of its organization back among the early years of the Fraternity. The spirit of extension, which was active at that period, found in Brown University a field worthy of cultivation. In 1836 certain students of Brown petitioned for a charter from the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, and presently secured the grant. In the autumn of that year Giles Mumford Hillyer, Columbia, '36; Seth Tryon Wilbur, Hamilton, '36, and afterwards Yale, '37; and William Alexander Sparks, Yale, '37, came to Providence with delegated authority, and formally instituted the Brunonian Chapter. Meetings were held weekly on Saturday mornings, and were of a character to call up most pleasant memories in the minds of our alumni who were then active participants. Members were chosen only from the three upper classes, and no one was accepted until he had proved himself worthy the honor. How just a judgment was used in this selection is evidenced by the character of the membership at that time. It was adherence to this principle, however, which ere long interrupted the growth of the Chapter. Other fraternities in a year or two established themselves at Brown, and began to receive members from the Freshman class. The alternatives thus offered Alpha Delta Phi for increasing her membership were the sacrifice of the principle she had adopted, or a choice of men from classes already canvassed by rivals. Neither was accepted, and in the autumn of 1838 it was resolved that no further elections be made. For twelve years following no initiations occurred.

In the latter part of 1850, however, steps were taken for the reorganization of the Chapter. At that time there were located at Williams and at Brown the only two New England chapters of a then small fraternity. Both were of good standing in their respective colleges, and decided to change their outer connections. The Chapter at Brown took the lead, followed soon after by that at Williams, in seeking place in the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity. For the ready success which rewarded these efforts, the petitioners at Brown were indebted to Melancthon Storrs and Delano Alexander Goddard, members of Brown University, and afterwards Alpha Deltas at Yale, graduating respectively in the classes of '52 and '53; to the cordial assistance of the Yale Chapter; and finally to the former reputation of "Brunonian" and the hearty coöperation of its graduates.

On the evening of April 15, 1851, William Wallace Crapo, Yale, '52, by authority of the Fraternity met in Providence and initiated as members of Alpha Delta Phi the following gentlemen, students in Brown University:

There grew up almost immediately a thorough sympathy between the new initiates and their predecessors of a dozen years. The aims, and largely the methods, were identical; the same spirit breathed in the revived body, so that despite the interval of years there seemed to have been no break in the line of succession. Indeed, from the beginning to the present, unity of purpose—and that a noble purpose—has, we believe, marked the history of "Brunonian," and our best hope for the future lies in the strength of this ruling principle. Of the deep, inner life of the Chapter no record may be put into words; it is clearly written in the heart of every true brother Alpha Delt. The high resolves inspired, the noble thoughts cherished, the pure and lasting friendships formed, have made fellowship in Alpha Delta Phi to many in preceding, as may it prove to many in succeeding, classes the choicest treasure of college days.

Among the honors won for their Chapter and the Fraternity have been:

THE HARVARD CHAPTER.

THE HARVARD CHAPTER,

1837 TO 1901.

Annals.

In 1836 there was in Harvard College no purely literary society to which Seniors and Juniors belonged as active members. The Hasty Pudding, the Porcellian and other clubs were convivial or dramatic clubs, and active membership in the Institute and IOH — which were debating societies rather than literary societies — ceased with the Sophomore year. There existed at the same time a good nucleus for such an organization in the committee of editors of Harvardiana, a College monthly, which was conducted with some spirit by the classes of '35, '36, '37 and '38. The editors of Harvardiana, in '37 and '38, were men of decided ability. They were Horatio (Emmons) Hale, Charles Hayward, Samuel Tenney Hildreth and Charles Stearns Wheeler, of '37, and Nathan Hale, Rufus King, George Warren Lippitt, James Russell Lowell and Charles Woodman Scates, of '38. The suggestion was made to the editors of the class of '37, that they should form a literary society to be affiliated with AJΦ. They assented to the proposition, and joined to themselves, of their own class, Bacon, Davis and Eustis, all of whom have since been physicians, and Williams, who has since been a distinguished instructor in Boston. So slight was the communication between one part of the country and another that the idea of connection between the Chapters had but little weight in men's interest in the society. The wish of these young men was probably to enlarge a little the editorial club, and certainly their selections were good.

The men from '38 chose, as their successors in the society, the five editors of Harvardiana, who were to follow them. These gentlemen added to their number Coolidge, subsequently a distinguished clergyman and teacher in Massachusetts, and Eustis, afterwards head of the Scientific School at Harvard. This gave them seven members. '37 had eight, '39 had ten, and '40 again had but eight. Although the publication of Harvardiana ceased with the class of '38, the Catalogue shows clearly enough that the rule of selection did not change. The rule of selection was to choose the belles-lettres men, so to speak, of the several classes. Of all the first four classes a person who knew the AJΦ members would say at once that they were men specially interested in literature, or perhaps in music or some other fine art — certainly in the specially liberal studies of the "humanities."

The club had the decided advantage of being absolutely prohibited by the authorities. The Faculty was not fond of any society in those days, and would have given no permission for the formation of a new one, least of all to the founding of a secret society affiliated with other colleges. The consciousness of this prohibition gave all the more zest to the meetings. The society hired a room in Holyoke street, and provided the better magazines of the day to make it a reading-room. They laid out a good deal of literary work, and they seem to have done it. The standard was rather that of the press than that of public speaking, and the papers written and criticised were written as if for a magazine or review. This was the ideal of the society for many years.

With the class of '65 the society was discontinued at Harvard.

In the winter of 1878-79 the desire sprung up among several of the Juniors and Seniors to reëstablish the society, with very much the same wish which had led to its formation at Cambridge. The most active members again were the editors of the College newspapers, and they proposed the reëstablishment of the society. The graduate members, who had always looked with regret on its discontinuance, were well pleased at the idea of a revival. The Convention of 1877 having given powers to a committee of graduates, in February, '79, the chairman of the committee, with the assistance of several members of the Fraternity, initiated four gentlemen from the two upper classes, and gave them power to elect and initiate members into the revived Chapter of ΑΙΦ.

During the spring of '79 attention was paid chiefly to the election of new members, and to the finding of a house for the Fraternity to occupy. Unfortunately this latter idea could not be carried out. The Fraternity thereupon decided to take the two rooms in Hilton's block, which they occupied until 1883, when they removed to a house on Holyoke street, where they occupied two rooms on the ground floor until the building of the new Hasty Pudding Club-house, on that site, in 1887. Being forced to move, the society leased a house at No. 14 Plimpton street, in 1887, where they remained until 1895. This lease then expiring, a movement was put on foot to build a club-house, and in the meantime land to the extent of 8,000 square feet was bought by a committee of graduate members of the ΑΙΦ.

In the autumn of 1896 ground was broken on their land for a new club-house, which was opened with a large and most successful dinner in the late spring of 1897. The acquisition of a suitable house seemed to mark a new era in the life of the Harvard Chapter. Since the movement was begun which resulted in the building of the house, its graduate members have taken a much livelier interest in its welfare. Once a month a committee of graduates meets with the officers of the Chapter to supervise its business affairs, and to confer and advise on the numerous questions which arise as to its management and policy. The Chapter is now out of debt except for the mortgage on its house and land; and its finances are in excellent condition.

THE GENEVA CHAPTER.

THE GENEVA CHAPTER,

1840 TO 1876.

Annals.

On the evening of the 23d of March, 1840, Mr. George Underwood and Mr. James Wickes Taylor, members of the Hamilton Chapter, organized the Geneva Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, initiating the following men: Walter Ayrault and Augustus Brown Cotes from the Senior Class, Egbert Bagg and George Lewis Pratt from the Junior Class, and Isaiah Horton McCollum from the Sophomore Class, together with Morse Stewart, a medical student of Penn Yan, and formerly a member of Hamilton College. At the first regular meeting officers were duly elected, and at a subsequent meeting, John Nicholas Whiting and Charles Henry Platt, both of Geneva, and members of the last graduating class, were initiated.

It seems to have been the custom at that time for secret societies to obtain charters, wherever established, from the college authorities, and in this case, objection having been made by the Faculty that the specific objects of the society were unknown to any of their body, in May Rev. Benjamin Hale, President of the College, was invited to become a member. This invitation was accepted, and on August 4th President Hale was duly initiated, and ever remained deeply interested in the Chapter and the society.

The day following Dr. Hale's initiation the first Commencement exercises after the establishment of the Chapter were held, the valedictory oration, the only honor assigned in that class, being pronounced by our Brother Walter Ayrault — a name now well known in the society as it is in the church. From that day till the closing of the Chapter in May, 1876, the history of the Geneva Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi is, with unimportant exceptions, a record of continued and gratifying success. The honor list, appended to this sketch, verifies this assertion in part; but it does not show — what all friends of the College are willing to admit — the uprightness, the manliness, the affectionate interest in their Alma Mater, which characterized, as a whole, the members of the Geneva Chapter.

The early rule of the society, that no elections or initiations could be made till the third term Sophomore, was soon felt by this Chapter to be a drag. In 1842 we find the Chapter earnestly agitating for a repeal of the rule, and the adoption of one which would leave each Chapter to judge for itself of the time of election and initiation. That the old rule worked disadvantageously to the Chapter in at least one particular, a glance at the honor roll will show. Fortunately, the rule was ultimately modified, and the Chapter soon won its way to that position of honorable and enviable prominence in College affairs which it vigorously maintained during the last twenty or twenty-five years of its career.

What the position of the Chapter was in the matter of college honors and prizes will be gathered from a study of the complete lists which accompany this history. The members of the Chapter deem the record one of which they have no reason to be ashamed. While it never was the policy of the Chapter to take a man simply for his class standing, it is felt to be a matter of congratulation that the ability to win college honors was so often found conjoined with those other characteristics sought for in the choice of members. It is but fitting to record here that the Master's Oration was first made a part of the Commencement exercises in this College in 1842, and was on that occasion pronounced by Charles Henry Platt, of blessed memory, as loyal to Alpha Delta Phi as he was eloquent, lovable and manly.

Possibly the most endearing recollections of the members of the Chapter are associated with the Commencement reunions. To the members of the Chapter, the Chapter was known as "Our Lady of the Lake," and, by a pleasant fiction, it was in honor of "Our Lady" that these reunions were held. These reunions grew in interest, strengthening in every heart the love of Alpha Delta Phi, and stirring in all the most laudable ambition. At the reunion, which was held in 1875, the year before the closing of the Chapter, over sixty brothers sat around the board. It will undoubtedly interest the later members of the Chapter to know that the designation of the Chapter as "Our Lady of the Lake" is probably as old as the Chapter. In a letter written early in 1842 the designation is used as one long current.

From 1864 to 1873 the Chapter indulged in a navy; and on the waters of the silver Seneca was waged many a contest with "hostile friends" and others. It was a period of great interest in the history of the Chapter. The Alpha Delta Phi navy survived its rivals, and died at last from want of a foe. The champion flag is to-day among the treasures of the Chapter.

This seems the most fitting place to pause and put on record, not a claim of special triumphs, won by the brothers in the social world of Geneva, but a note of sincere acknowledgment of the pleasure with which the members of this Chapter recall the unvarying courtesy and kindness with which they were received in the hospitable homes which grace this College town.

With sister chapters the Geneva Chapter ever cultivated the most cordial relations; but it felt itself especially bound to Hamilton as its parent, and to Cornell as its child.

The Chapter was closed in May, 1876. It did not die out. On account of unhappy dissensions in the Board of Trustees, a sudden and great reduction in the number of students attending the College took place that year, and, after consultation, it was deemed best to suspend the Chapter. "Our Lady" looks forward, however, to the day when she shall again open her doors and take her place in the golden circle.

THE HUDSON CHAPTER.

THE HUDSON CHAPTER,

1841 TO 1901.

Annals.

The Hudson Chapter was founded July 1, 1841, at the Western Reserve College in Hudson, Ohio, by Samuel Eells, the founder of the Fraternity, and Joseph FewSmith, Yale, '40, then a tutor at Western Reserve. Mr. Eells was then in the last year of his life, and in failing health; and his coming to Hudson to take the leading part in establishing a Chapter there must have been felt by him to be probably the last service he should be able to render to the Fraternity he loved so well. The Charter members were Walter S. Barber, George C. Bristol, Rufus Patch and Henry W. Williams of the class of '41, and Charles F. Hudson and Henry A. Swift of the class of '42. That the countenance of the Faculty of the College was not lacking is shown by the election to membership of Professors Elias Loomis and Samuel St. John at the second meeting of the Chapter, and of Professors Henry Noble Day and Nathan Perkins Seymour shortly after. No secret fraternity had existed at the College before the establishment of the Hudson Chapter.

During the period from 1852 to 1855 the number of students in the College became very greatly reduced owing to the troubles in which the College was then involved, and the active membership of the Chapter fell to two or three. With the inauguration of President Hitchcock in 1855 the College regained its old footing and, beginning with the class of 1859 entering that year, the Chapter became again able to add to its membership year by year delegations of the accustomed size and strength.

In 1882 the name of the College was changed to "Adelbert College of Western Reserve University," and the College was removed to Cleveland. The Chapter life in Hudson had been such as is characteristic of a college in a small town where the student life centres in and about the college dormitories; while since the removal to Cleveland has come about the adaptation of both College and Chapter to the surroundings of a city with a less proportion of the students living upon the college grounds.

For fifteen years following the removal of the College to Cleveland the Chapter had its rooms in the Cobb & Bradley block on Euclid Avenue; but in 1897 it leased, and has since occupied for Chapter purposes, a convenient house on Fairchild street, near the College grounds; so that the Chapter is now at last in the enjoyment of the advantages and pleasures of a Fraternity House.

Of the fifty-six valedictories delivered since the establishment of the Chapter, twenty-two have been by members of the Chapter, and to its members have fallen also a corresponding share of salutatories and other college honors. Of the one hundred and forty-eight members of the Chapter graduated since its establishment, sixty-six have been elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa.

The membership of the Chapter in the classes 1858 to 1865 inclusive aggregated thirty-eight, of whom twenty-six were in the Federal service during the Civil War. Eleven from other classes were also in that service, and one in the Confederate service.

Nearly one-third of the names on the Chapter membership roll appear in the Kinship Lists.

THE BOWDOIN CHAPTER.

BOWDOIN.

THE BOWDOIN CHAPTER,

1841 TO 1901.

Annals.

It was on a Saturday night, the sixteenth of October, 1841, that the Bowdoin Chapter of ΑΔΦ was established. A letter from one of the principal actors says: "The first initiation of ΑΔΦ was held, I think, in a little building on the west side of the road running in front of the College. This building went among the students by the name of the Gothic — sometimes, perhaps, Gothic Hall." It was built during President Allen's time for an academy, and was a unique specimen of Gothic architecture. Here, then, the ΑΔΦ of Bowdoin came into life. The charter members were four: Gardiner, Boody, Clark, Trask, all of the class of 1842. Bro. Gardiner, it appears, had been initiated by the Geneva Chapter; but, as the Harvard Chapter was nearer, he obtained from it authority to establish a chapter at Bowdoin. He says: "Coming to Bowdoin at the opening of my Senior year, I felt much need of the society. I found several of my classmates disposed to join, and also some from the previous classes." It has been thought that the Faculty of the College were opposed to the establishment of secret societies; but they were consulted at the beginning, and offered no objections. It happened that several of the brothers roomed in the old Gothic, or "Chateau," as it was afterwards called, and from the seclusion of the place this at once became the ΑΔΦ headquarters. The high standing of the society in its first years can be shown in no better way than by mentioning the names of some of the graduates who became members at that time. Such men as John Orr Fiske, Geo. W. Fields, Gideon S. Palmer, Elijah Kellogg, Henry Boynton Smith, Geo. F. Magoun, Henry Ingalls and a score of others, must have given the highest character to the society. It can be truly said of our Chapter that it reached its full manhood in the first five years of its existence. The last meeting held in the Chateau bears the date of July 28, 1845. The meeting of October 16 following was held in what had already been secured and fitted up as the regular society hall, the room over James Cary's jewelry store, opposite the Universalist Church. Great pains were taken to secure secrecy with regard to both place and time of meeting. It was intended that nothing should be known of the society except the badges worn by the members. The remoteness of the place was not, therefore, considered unfavorable. But the new hall did not take the place of the old Chateau. A brother writes: "I know I but speak the feelings of the hearts of many of you, when I say that I still look back, as the pilgrim does to the home of his childhood, to that old Chateau. 'Twas there our Chapter was formed, and often in days of yore have those old rooms been the scene of thoughts and words and feelings which pass away, and leave their impress forever on the heart.

" 'And oft in future years,
I'll sit and shut my eyes,
And my heart will travel back again
Where those pointed arches rise.' "

About 1855 the society removed to a room nearer College, situated over the store now occupied by E. Smith. In October, 1874, the hall which we now occupy was dedicated.

In the fall of 1845 Freshmen were first admitted. Previous to this the society had been a junior society, initiating its members regularly at the close of Sophomore year, just as the Seniors were taking their leave. But in the meantime other secret societies had sprung up, and the rivalry that existed made the new step advisable.

Before secret societies were introduced into Bowdoin, there had existed two literary societies — the Peucinian and Athenæan. They had exerted a great influence in the early days of the College, and were very dear to many of the graduates. As secret societies increased in number and influence, the interest in these old institutions diminished. It was long evident that a severe contest would come sooner or later, and it did come in the fall of 1857. The opponents of secret societies used every means in their power against AJΦ and like institutions. One of the brothers writes: "The movement threatened the greatest evil — imperilling the very existence of AJΦ in Bowdoin." But the old standard was raised by the few loyal ones, and help came from every quarter, giving complete victory.

Over fifty-seven years have passed since AJΦ was established in Bowdoin. As we have had occasion to review the lives and deeds of our predecessors in the society, we have been gratified to see the honorable positions which they are holding. Not a few have attained eminence. Looking over the list, we find eight college presidents, some thirty college professors, thirteen bankers, forty-four physicians, seventy-seven lawyers, and forty-one in the ministry. In the Civil War the Bowdoin Chapter was represented by over forty men who, almost without exception, were officers. In scholarship we have stood on a level with any other society — certainly far ahead of some. In this connection it might be proper to state that of the 386 members initiated into AJΦ by the Chapter, and excluding the members of the active Chapter, 294, or 84 per cent., are graduates. Of these 294 graduates, 142, or 48 per cent., have been members of the ΦBK. The society has always maintained a high standard of intellectual development, and will always continue to do so. As we not only stand high in scholarship, we also hold prominent positions in all branches of college athletics, football, baseball, track work, and in the social life of the College. The smallness of our College, and the quietness of the town in which our institution is located, cause us to seek our enjoyment among ourselves to a great extent. The social influences of the College must, therefore, mould the student to a great degree. Long years ago a brother gave us a maxim, which seems to have been kept supreme: "It takes a head and a heart to make a man, and he who has but one of these is at best but half a man." The influence which ΑΙΦ exerts over her sons is second to none in the College, and this influence has always been ennobling.

Several times in the history of our Chapter have attempts been made to erect a chapter house suitable to our needs, but not until within the past few years has anything definite been accomplished. In the fall of 1895 ΑΙΦ made the first movement of all the fraternities at Bowdoin and took the initiative by the purchase of a very desirable lot upon which we intend to erect a house which will be a suitable home for the Bowdoin Chapter of ΑΙΦ. This we hope to do within the next few years.

A partial list of the honors taken by the Chapter includes the following:

THE DARTMOUTH CHAPTER.

THE DARTMOUTH CHAPTER,

1845 TO 1901.

Annals.

During the college year 1842-43 the TJΘ Society was organized at Dartmouth College with fourteen members, all from the Sophomore Class. In the autumn of 1844 this society entered into correspondence with the Amherst Chapter of AJΦ, with a view of converting the TJΘ into a chapter of the AJΦ. Mr. George H. Palmer, of the Class of '45, was sent to Amherst to confer upon the subject. The Amherst Chapter seemed to favor such a change; but no definite results were reached. After the Class of '45 had been graduated, the matter was taken in hand by Isaac W. Smith, of the Class of '46, until recently Judge of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire.

Mr. Smith secured the active coöperation of a personal friend, Mr. William B. Capron, a member of the Yale Chapter of AJΦ. A correspondence with Mr. Capron resulted in securing a charter for the Dartmouth Chapter, through the influence of the Yale Chapter. In March, 1846, Mr. Henry T. Steele and Mr. Charles A. Nichols, of Yale, came to Hanover, organized the Dartmouth Chapter, and initiated the charter members. The initiation took place at the house of Prof. E. D. Sanborn, now the Sanborn House, in the room which he for many years occupied as a study, and is now No. 2 in this popular College dormitory.

Soon after its organization the new Chapter fitted up rooms on the third floor of Dartmouth Hall, and these it continued to occupy until September, 1872, when it took possession of the new and commodious Chapter House built by the alumni. The rooms in Dartmouth Hall were neat and convenient; but with the growth of the College other societies located in larger and more elaborate quarters, one of them building a substantial hall for its exclusive use. On this account the Chapter suffered somewhat in comparison with other societies. This fact becoming known to the graduate brothers, a movement was inaugurated to build a hall which should furnish enlarged and suitable accommodations for the Chapter, and be its permanent home.

This movement awakened a lively interest and elicited liberal contributions, so that the local committee soon felt authorized in laying the foundations of the new Chapter House. Generous contributions were made by many of the brethren; but the largest individual subscribers to the building fund were Brother Horatio N. Twombly, of the Class of '54, whose subscription at the outset decided the question of building, and who subsequently increased his gift; and Brother William W. Niles, of New York, of the Class of '45, who has recently given largely to cancel the debt.

To the untiring perseverance of Prof. Charles F. Emerson, of the Class of '68, who had the matter in charge from the first, the Chapter is largely indebted for the success of the enterprise.

The Chapter House is a substantial brick structure, two stories in height, the first floor being divided into three suites of rooms, occupied by brothers of the Chapter, a room for social purposes, and a toilet room, the entire second floor being taken up by the hall and anterooms. The hall is large, attractively decorated and furnished, and admirably adapted to the purposes for which it was intended. The building is supplied with water, heated by furnaces, and lighted by electricity. It is located near Culver Hall, a little east of the spot where the Burke House formerly stood.

It has been the aim of the Chapter from the beginning not so much to secure numbers as to bring in young men of manly character and high scholarship. It has always been, and is to-day, a scholarly and manly society.

Since the erection of the new Chapter House ΔΔΦ at Dartmouth has received a new impulse, and is to-day on the high tide of prosperity, full of brilliant promise for the future.

It supplements, in the best way, the training afforded by the College, and this fact is clearly recognized alike by faculty, alumni and students. Our graduate brothers look back with joy and pride to the days of ΔΔΦ, feeling that they are largely its debtors, not only for literary training, but for a powerful impulse towards nobler living, and friendship that shall never end.

The following partial list of the honors won by the members of the Dartmouth Chapter before graduation begins at 1865, no prizes having been given before that date, and the prizes since then having varied in number and importance during different years:

THE PENINSULAR CHAPTER.

PENINSULAR.

THE PENINSULAR CHAPTER,

1846 TO 1901.

Annals.

On the 12th of June, 1846, a letter was written by William Henry Goodrich, Yale, '43, who was at that time the Secretary of the Council, to Rufus Nutting, Hudson, '43, authorizing him to establish a Chapter of $\Lambda\Lambda\Phi$ at the University of Michigan. Brother Nutting doubtless delegated his authority to others; for we learn that on the afternoon of the 5th of August, 1846, directly after the conferring of diplomas, Henry Adoniram Swift, Hudson, '42, in company with Robert Ransom Kellogg, Urban, '35, headed the most important procession that aspirants to membership in the Peninsular Chapter of $\Lambda\Lambda\Phi$ ever formed, and led it to a little office just off the College grounds. There our forefathers were duly initiated, and the Peninsular Chapter of our Fraternity was organized.

The charter members are Charles Alexander Clark, '45; Edmund Fish, '45; Winfield Smith, '46; Adonijah Strong Welch, '46; Samuel Shaler Hall, '47; James Ariosto Duncan, '48; and Wells Ransom Marsh, '48. For some years thereafter the members of the Chapter continued to hold meetings about once a month, but with little regularity as to their recurrence, apparently, until 1858, when the members began to gather together with the same frequency and regularity as are now observed.

The brothers seem to have assembled at first wherever a place was available, usually in one of the dormitories, and occasionally in some room in the hotel, until Charles Walter Becker, '52, kindly allowed them the use of a room in his house at Ann Arbor. About 1854 the members of the Chapter rented a session room, and continued to do so until 1883, when we were finally established in our present quarters.

The internal economy of the Chapter, however, was of minor importance in its early years in comparison with its long and successful struggle for existence with the authorities of the University, from 1847 to 1852, a contest carried on with unflagging courage by our predecessors, into whose labors we enter. Unable to obtain definite consent to the existence of the Chapter in connection with the University, Dr. Kellogg advised that a branch of the Chapter be established in Ann Arbor, independent of the College, — advice followed in the organization. In the College year 1845-46, however, the Faculty passed a law providing, among other things, that no student could be admitted into any class without signing a pledge that he would not be a member of any secret society not approved by the Faculty. The brothers realized the invalidity of this proscription, both on account of our non-identification with the University, and as terms of admission to that institution could be qualified only by the Legislature and Board of Regents, and did not hesitate to swell their ranks with newly initiated men.

An attempt to enforce this regulation in the spring of 1847, under threat of expulsion, was followed by a compromise, under which the Chapter waived its claim to non-connection with the University, and acknowledged the twentieth rule passed by the Regents, which demanded that a secret society's existence should depend upon the Faculty's approval, and the Faculty determined that it "had no power to legalize the Fraternity under the rules," thus confessing its lack of authority over the Chapter. The compromise did not long continue, and, after the class of '49 was graduated, the contest was renewed by expelling all the members of secret societies in College. The struggle which followed engaged the attention of the State and its press, and ended in the restoration of the expelled students to the University.

Frequent assertions of its rights on the part of the Chapter, and as frequent denials of the same by the Faculty, occupied the fall of 1850 and the winter of 1850-51. In the early part of the spring the Faculty again resorted to the extremity of expelling the undergraduates, and readmitted them only on their consenting to refrain from exercising their rights of membership until after graduation. Our numbers were thus reduced to three; but these were as good as a host, strengthened as they were by their resolute determination and a decided public sentiment in their favor. The Faculty demanded the privilege of inspecting the constitution; the Chapter refused, and the struggle ended in the full and complete recognition of the Chapter by the Faculty as of legal and regular standing in the University, with the single reservation that the College authorities should be informed of the time of meeting and the name of the president.

The next twenty years passed away quietly and prosperously. We find the delegations larger, the society work well attended to, and all the marks of general prosperity. The general convention of the Fraternity was held with Peninsular Chapter in 1872 and again in 1885 and 1896. In 1873 the Chapter began to agitate the matter of building a lodge, and at that time a decided step was taken, many subscriptions being made both by the active members and by the graduate brothers. The financial panic, which immediately followed, made it impossible to proceed further, and nothing of importance was done in this regard till 1879. Early in this year the "Peninsular Society," consisting principally of graduate members, received a charter from the State, and the members began work in earnest once more. In 1880 enough had been collected to purchase the lot, which is now occupied by the Chapter.

A new departure in Ann Arbor society life was made in the fall of 1875, when the Chapter rented as a Chapter House the so-called "Octagon." Since that time, with the exception of a month or two in 1877, most of the active members have lived together, making the most of the advantages possessed.

In 1883 the Chapter began the occupation of the stone house at 556 South State street, which they have steadily improved since that time. Small-pox visited the brothers in 1889, and during the process of fumigation the house caught fire and partly burned. Another quarantine was made necessary in the fall of 1891, when two of the servants had diphtheria.

THE ROCHESTER CHAPTER.

ROCHESTER.

THE ROCHESTER CHAPTER,

1850 TO 1901.

Annals.

In the winter of 1849-50 the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity decided to establish a Chapter at Madison (now Colgate) University, located at Hamilton, N. Y. A charter was granted, and twelve students of Madison University were initiated, by the Hamilton Chapter, into the mysteries of Alpha Delta Phi. They rode over from Hamilton to Clinton one evening in a sleigh, were initiated, and got back the next morning in time for early chapel. The new Chapter began holding regular meetings, and seemed destined to a prosperous future. Many of the friends of Madison University, however, thought its location, for many reasons, unfortunate; and this, combined with other causes, induced a majority of the professors and students of Madison University to secede from the College, and, coming to Rochester, to found the institution known as the University of Rochester. All but two (who had graduated) of the members of the newly formed Chapter were among the students who left Madison for Rochester. An application was immediately made to the society for a charter for a Chapter at the new University, and regular meetings were held, though no new members were initiated. After much trouble and delay a charter was obtained; and, under the name of the Empire Chapter, the Alpha Delta Phi society was formally established at the University of Rochester, in the spring of the year 1851. Some opposition on the part of the Faculty, who had passed an anti-secret society resolution, was at first experienced; but when it was discovered that a Chapter was already in active operation, they gracefully yielded; the acting President, Dr. A. C. Kendrick, in announcing their decision, paying a glowing tribute to the memory of Samuel Eells, who had been his classmate and room-mate at Hamilton College.

The first meetings were held in the parlor of the old National Hotel, on the corner of Buffalo (now West Main) and Fitzhugh streets, which was used as a Chapter Hall until the Chapter became strong enough to rent a suitable hall of its own. A room was finally obtained on Buffalo street, near the old University building, which was used as a Chapter Hall until 1861, when the hall occupied by the Chapter for the next twenty-seven years was rented, and especially constructed for the Chapter, in the building then being erected on the corner of East Main and South St. Paul streets.

A strong sentiment existed for several years among the active members in favor of a Chapter House, but nothing was done for a long time owing to the policy which the College then maintained of opposition to dormitories and Chapter Houses. In spite of this a few members of the Chapter worked for several years to find a suitable house and secure the support of the alumni in making a trial of the system. Finally, on May 11, 1888, at a joint meeting of the Chapter and the local alumni it was decided to rent a large house at No. 7 Gibbs street. An association composed of members of the Chapter was formed with the following officers: President, Roscoe C. E. Brown, 1889; Treasurer, Harlan P. DeLand, 1890; Secretary, J. Howard Bradstreet, 1891. This association raised money to refit the building for Chapter purposes and managed its affairs. The house was occupied in the fall of 1888 and there the Chapter remained until June, 1892, when, plans for building a permanent home being under way, a house at No. 24 Hawthorne street was rented for temporary quarters. A lot was purchased at the corner of East Main and Prince streets, almost opposite the College Campus, and there a handsome and substantial house, in the colonial style, was erected. The Chapter took possession of its permanent home on January 1, 1894, and it was formally dedicated to the uses of the Fraternity on March 13, 1894. On that occasion the address was delivered by Roscoe C. E. Brown, 1889, and the poem was read by Harry Hayden Barstow, 1893. The Chapter House is owned and controlled by the Genesee Graduate Chapter, of which Selden S. Brown, 1879, is President; William A. Perrin, 1891, Treasurer; and Luther M. Hair, 1877, Secretary. This association, besides acting as custodian of the house and assisting the active Chapter, holds a reunion of all Western New York Alpha Delta Phis each winter.

The career of the Chapter has, on the whole, been extremely prosperous. During the first years of its existence, the College being poor and there being comparatively few students, it suffered many hardships, being reduced at one time to an active membership of three men. As the College became richer and more prosperous the Chapter became stronger in proportion, and now occupies a secure and honorable position among the institutions of the University of Rochester.

The Chapter was at first called the Empire Chapter, and this name was retained until about 1860, when it was changed to the present name of the Rochester Chapter.

Three conventions of the Fraternity have been held with the Rochester Chapter — a special convention in 1864, the general convention of 1880 and the general convention of 1890. On the evening preceding the public exercises of the Convention of 1880 a reception was given the delegates from the various Chapters, in Powers' Art Gallery, by the wives of the Alpha Delta Phi resident in Rochester. The public exercises were held in the Corinthian Academy of Music, and were under the charge of A. C. Coxe, Urban, 1838. Besides Bishop Coxe, the society was addressed by Francis A. Macomber, Rochester, 1859; Walter Ayrault, Geneva, 1840; Joseph M. Bailey, Rochester, 1854; and Ellis H. Roberts, Yale, 1850. At the convention of 1890 a reception was held in Powers' Art Gallery, a banquet was given in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, and the public exercises were held in the Lyceum Theatre. Walter S. Hubbell, Rochester, 1871, presided at the public exercises, and addresses were made by T. Edwin Brown, Rochester, 1878; and by Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Brunonian, 1875.

In the Faculty of the University the society has been represented by the late President John H. Raymond, of Vassar College (1850-56), Hamilton, 1837; Prof. Otis H. Robinson (1864), Rochester, 1861; Prof. Adoniram J. Sage (1870-72), Rochester, 1860; Prof. William C. Morey (1872), Rochester, 1868; Prof. George D. Olds (1884-90), Rochester, 1872; and Prof. Henry E. Lawrence (1894), Rochester, 1889.

As the University of Rochester has never appointed salutatorians or valedictorians, and the class averages of the students are kept secret, the only means of obtaining a knowledge of the scholarship of the Chapter is from a comparison of the prizes taken by it. In this respect the Alpha Delta Phi society at Rochester is, without dispute, the first. Out of the whole number of prizes awarded by the University, more than two-fifths have been taken by Alpha Delta Phi. A summary of the prizes awarded is appended, together with a list of those taken by Alpha Delta Phi.

321 MEMBERS.

THE ALABAMA CHAPTER.

THE ALABAMA CHAPTER,

1850 TO 1859.

Annals.

The Alabama Chapter was established at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, in 1850, by members of the Senior class, and remained for eight years an active and flourishing Chapter of the Fraternity, doing its appointed work, although at a distance from the other chapters and removed from immediate and frequent contact with them. The lively interest felt in the Chapter, and its firm hold upon the affections of its members, have been sufficiently attested in the correspondence of the compiler with its surviving members, whose result is apparent in the full record of the Chapter inscribed below. In 1858 the faculty of the University prohibited secret societies, and the Chapter suspended its active functions. The graduate members of the Chapter met immediately after this occurrence at Shelby Springs, Ala., and organized a graduate association; but the war, in which so large a proportion of the members of the Chapter served under Confederate colors, early brought the annual reunions to a close. As the buildings, records and library of the University were burned during the war, these sources of information as to college honors won by the Chapter are cut off, and the record below, even where it indicates the University degrees of the members, has been compiled only by diligent personal inquiry.

To the friends and kin of our deceased brothers the thanks of the Chapter are due for the information whose results are given below. The special acknowledgment of the Fraternity is also due to Dr. Wm. S. Wyman, of Alabama University, for valuable assistance in completing the records of the deceased and the living. And to Brother Somerville and to Brother Fisher the present compiler feels particularly indebted for data, which in many instances would otherwise have been entirely beyond his reach.

THE WILLIAMS CHAPTER.

THE WILLIAMS CHAPTER,

1851 TO 1901.

Annals.

Like Brunonian, the Williams Chapter succeeded a chapter of a western college fraternity whose other chapters, all in western colleges, enjoyed a high position and an excellent reputation. After conference with Brunonian, and acting upon a common understanding, application was made for a charter in Alpha Delta Phi. About the middle of December, 1850, the Brunonian Chapter petitioned for admission, and in March, 1851, was admitted. Owing to unavoidable circumstances, the Chapter here could not send in its petition till after the Brunonian Chapter had been admitted.

Meantime there had been formed in this College a union of worthy men, and a petition from them for admission into the Alpha Delta Phi society had been laid before the Yale Chapter a little before the petition from those who had constituted the chapter of the western fraternity, and to the first petition a favorable reception was immediately given. At this juncture the action of the two organizations became known to each other, and proposals were at once made for union, which, however, was not effected till the Yale Chapter had sent W. W. Crapo as a delegate, to make a definite arrangement between the two, and then a new petition was drawn up and signed by individuals of both organizations. An answer to this petition was long expected with great impatience, but on account of some delays it was not till the 1st of July that it was received. On the evening of that day W. W. Crapo and D. C. Gilman, delegates from the Alpha Delta Phi at Yale, unexpectedly arrived, bringing with them the charter empowering the formation of a Chapter in Williams College. On the same night, at a late hour, the following persons were duly initiated and formed into a Chapter, under the name of the Williams Chapter:

Seniors. — George Ellery Clarke, Seth Mooar Dunning, Samuel Bushnell Goodale, James Kellogg Mills, George Mooar, Charles Newman, Jackson Temple, Samuel Williams.

Afterwards, on the evening of July 8, Hiram LaMotte Lewis, Junior, and Charles Franklin Gilson, Sophomore, who were absent at the formation of the Chapter, were initiated at a special meeting.

Owing to the lack of a sufficient number of badges, the society did not "swing" until July 9. Tradition says that a College meeting had been called for the morning of that day, in which twenty-seven AJΦ badges were displayed. This was the first intimation in College of what had been done, and so amazed and bewildered were the students at the formation among them, and without their knowledge, of a Chapter of so strong and powerful a Fraternity as AJΦ, that the meeting broke up without attending to the business for which it had been called, and the absorbing topic of the day throughout the College was the new society.

The society had had various lodges up to 1865, when the subject of the erection of a hall was broached. Nothing was done until the reunion of 1866, when three thousand dollars were subscribed, and a committee appointed to take the matter in charge. Active measures were taken, but it was not until the fall of 1868 that ground for the structure was broken. The work was pushed along, until, in October, 1869, a permanent home for the Chapter was completed. On the fifth day of November the hall was dedicated to AJΦ. The undergraduates of succeeding classes, not being wholly satisfied with the internal arrangement of the building, offered, at the Commencement of 1875, to make such alterations as would make it satisfactory, on condition that the alumni would furnish and decorate the building. The proposition was accepted. In 1880 a handsome porch was erected to the memory of James Ruthven Adriance, '78, by his family and members of AJΦ associated with him in College.

The spring of 1893 found the building in such a bad condition that it was deemed advisable by the Chapter to rent a house for the Chapter's use during the coming year, in the hopes that the new house so long looked forward to and talked about would be built.

It was not until the spring of 1894 that an active building committee was appointed, and a sufficient sum of money raised and pledged, to warrant the tearing down of the old building and the drawing up of plans for a new one.

The latter part of July the new house was begun, and on March 30, 1895, was occupied for the first time by the Chapter.

Two handsome mantel-pieces have been built: one in the library to the memory of William Talcott, '65, by the Chapter, and the other in the dining-room to the memory of Horace Nathaniel Pennoyer, '98, by his family.

Handsome windows have also been placed in the house in memory of Valentine Burt Chamberlain, George Dickinson Goodrich and Elias Cornelius Hooker, '57, Robert Washburn Gilbert, '77, Edwin Clapp Peck, '80, and Walter Lee Sanders, '89.

The principal honors have been won by :

George Moor, '51, Valedictory; Charles Newman, '51, Phil. Oration; J. W. Dickinson, '52, Classical Oration; H. M. Hazeltine, '52, Phil. Oration; A. L. Perry, '52, Metaphysical Oration; H.  300 MEMBERS.

THE MANHATTAN CHAPTER.

THE MANHATTAN CHAPTER,

1855 TO 1901.

Annals.

On the evening of March 9, 1855, eleven members of the New York Free Academy assembled at the Collamore House, Broadway, and there met Henry D. Root and William W. Goodrich, then graduates of the Amherst Chapter, who avowed themselves so much pleased with the spirit manifested by the men there assembled, that they pledged themselves to use their whole influence with their own and other Chapters to obtain a charter for the petitioners.

As a consequence of this meeting an application for membership in the Fraternity was drawn up by William H. Abel and Franklin S. Rising, a committee appointed for that purpose, and presented to the Amherst Chapter. The affirmative answer of that Chapter was received on April 6, 1855, and the other Chapters having signified their approbation, a charter was issued, dated July 9, 1855, and the evening of Monday, July 9, 1855, was chosen for the initiation of the new Chapter, at which time the ceremony was performed; and Manhattan Chapter held its first regular meeting on Thursday, July 12, 1855, at the residence of Brother Simeon Baldwin, No. 48 East 25th street.

The appearance of Brothers Rising and Baldwin at the next Convention, at Cambridge, was the signal for a most gratifying reception to the delegates from the new Chapter. The fact that the inauguration of the Chapter was so long delayed after the application was a most unfortunate one, as eight of the eleven founders, as well as the only member yet initiated by them, Brother Benjamin F. Lee, graduated at the following Commencement, leaving only Brothers Franklin S. Rising, Russell Sturgis and James L. Van Buren as active members. But the brothers worked hard and earnestly, and at the next initiation, which took place on Friday, October 11, 1855, seven new brothers, of the classes of '54, '55, '57 and '59, were admitted into the bonds of our Fraternity.

From this time onward the Chapter prospered, and on February 19, 1856, held its first meeting in its new rooms, No. 809 Broadway, as yet not entirely furnished. After the completion of the hall a special dedicatory meeting was held May 29, 1856, at which brothers from the Hamilton, Urban, Columbia, Yale, Amherst, Harvard, Geneva, Dartmouth and Williams Chapters were present. Further on the rooms were completely furnished; a comfortable retreat was furnished to the ardent Alpha Deltas, who were not slow to embrace the opportunity, and afternoon social gatherings became a regular feature of the Fraternity life.

On June 24 and 25, 1857, the Twenty-fifth Annual Convention was held in New York City. The occasion was a great one in the Fraternity, and Manhattan Chapter received great benefit thereby. Her part in the ceremonies of the occasion was no slight one, and she saw, as a Chapter, for the first time, what the true Alpha Delta spirit was.

At the meeting of March 10, 1858, the Chapter mourned the first gap in its ranks, made by the death of one of its most devoted brothers — Matthew James Blakely, of the class of '58 — and appropriate resolutions were passed. The Chapter in a body attended the funeral on the next day, ten brothers acting as pall-bearers.

For a long time the Chapter held the even tenor of its way, nothing especially worthy of note occurring until in May, 1859, it received notice that the initiation of the Union Chapter was to be entrusted to Manhattan. Brothers James Weir Mason, Adolph Werner and Henry Kirke White were the committee for the Chapter, and on the 8th of July seventeen men of that College were duly initiated. In the latter part of this year the Graduate Chapter in New York, so long a noted, useful and helpful body of brothers, first met as an organized body.

From this time onward no event of great moment has broken the quiet and beauty of our fraternal life. The Chapter has been in the most prosperous condition. Assisted, overlooked and advised by the Graduate Chapter, and sustained by its thorough and universal fraternal spirit, it is in the present, as it always has been in the past, a Chapter acting, as far as possible, up to the aims of Samuel Eells, and one with a hearty love and sincere admiration for Alpha Delta Phi.

The last decade has been a prosperous epoch in the history of Manhattan. For years we had our quarters in the house of the New York Graduate Association, 427 Fourth avenue, where we mingled with the older brethren and enjoyed their sager counsel and help. Under such propitious circumstances we could not but prosper; our environment was everything that was calculated to encourage our active members and stimulate in them the true spirit of Alpha Delta Phi.

In the spring of 1891 the Chapter moved to its separate quarters at 13 East 42d street. This in no way removed us from the helpful and guiding influence of our graduates. Moreover, these rooms were well adapted to the giving of private theatricals, which formed a pleasant feature of our Chapter gatherings.

In the winter of 1896 the Chapter moved into a commodious brown stone house at 130 East 57th street. This step still further enhanced the social attractions of the Chapter, giving us greater freedom and affording greater comfort. In our new abode we feel all the home cheerfulness and contentment, and all our surroundings are such as to promise happy times in the future.

Nothing of moment has disturbed the quiet but steady growth of our Chapter. The brevity of our annals betokens the happy and unruffled character of our Fraternity life.

Manhattan Chapter has taken ten Valedictories, nine Salutatories and thirty-one Honor Oration, besides many other Honorary Oration and Dissertations, in its forty-four years of existence. The Pell Medals, for general proficiency, were taken sixteen times. The Burr Medals (mathematics) were taken ten times. The Riggs Medals, for composition (established in 1865), have been taken by Senior ADP's eight times, and by Juniors eight times. The Belden Prize (established 1883, but now discontinued) has been taken by members of the Chapter nine times; and the Ketchum Prize twice since its establishment in 1891. The Sophomore Cromwell medals have been taken sixteen times, twelve of them firsts. The Kelly Prize Critique has been won five times by ADP's. Alpha Deltas have taken five prizes in the Kelly Prize Debates. In Prize Speaking we have taken eleven prizes. The Lockwood Prize has been won six times. Seven Claflin Prizes have been awarded to us. When money prizes (for a few years only) were awarded, many more than our fair share were taken by ADP's. Of the twenty Ward Medals, awarded each year since '59, we have taken a great number; besides other special prizes.

Valedictorians: William H. Abel, '55; Charles H. Pratt, '56; Adolph Werner, '57; Charles L. Balch, '60; Charles Roberts, '62; Clinton J. Hartt, '64; John A. Knapp, '65; Edward C. Henderson, '76; Charles H. Wilson, '77; C. L. Poor, '86.

THE MIDDLETOWN CHAPTER.

MIDDLETOWN.

THE MIDDLETOWN CHAPTER,

1856 TO 1901.

Annals.

The Middletown Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was the eighteenth in order of establishment, receiving its charter on the 31st of July, 1856, and holding its first regular meeting on Saturday evening, August 2. It sprang from the union of two local societies, the Betrians and the Lebanians. The Betrian Society was organized in 1847, from an older association, the Alpha Psi; and the Lebanian Society owed its formation chiefly to the efforts of John Emory Round, '55, and Orville Watson Powers, '56. This latter society began in 1854 with four members, adding to its roll eight more names during the first year. Its existence was for a time kept secret; but the excellent influence exerted by it upon its members, stimulating them to increased effort, ultimately led to the discovery of the organization. Early in 1856 both the Lebanians and the Betrians forwarded a petition to the annual convention, holden that year with the Yale Chapter, asking for the grant of a charter. The committee to whom these petitions were referred found it exceedingly difficult to decide between the two bodies of petitioners. It soon became evident, indeed, that, since either party was powerful enough to defeat the other, neither could succeed of itself. At this juncture a union was proposed by David Hough Ela, '57, Hiram Pliny Shepard, '58, and George Henry Whitney, '58, of the Betrians, and Orville Watson Powers, '56, and Joseph Whitcomb Ellis, '58, of the Lebanians. This was finally effected. The united societies were initiated into the Fraternity of Alpha Delta Phi at the McDonough House, in Middletown, Conn., on the evening of July 31, 1856.

The subsequent history of the Chapter has been, in the greatest measure, what its auspicious birth predicted. In a University where the fraternity life is carried almost to an extreme, with the natural consequence of intense rivalry, Alpha Delta Phi has always been awarded a foremost position. The love and devotion of undergraduates and alumni have insured to her unvarying success. No fraternity represented at Wesleyan has so enviable a record for the results of the successive fall "cultivation" seasons, because no other can show to the incoming freshman such chapter traditions and such worthy exponents of those traditions. The popularity of her ideals is further shown by the large proportion of her members that are annually called by the student body to fill positions of responsibility and honor.

The number of men received from each class averages between nine and ten, while the roll for any single year has rarely included over thirty names. The aggregate membership now reaches nearly four hundred and seventy-five.

In 1876 there was an enthusiastic movement towards the erection of a chapter house, the need of which was becoming more and more apparent. The methods adopted, however, were such as to accomplish little beyond the initiation of the enterprise. Two years later more systematic efforts brought better results; and, at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Chapter, in 1881, the generous action of the members made the speedy erection of the hall a matter of certainty. Ground was at once broken upon the site already purchased, and plans for the present house were perfected in the spring of 1882. The house, which was completed in the spring of 1884, and occupied in May of that year, contains commodious rooms for receptions and entertainments, and a large dining-hall which will accommodate the whole Chapter, besides suites of study and bed rooms sufficient for ten members. It is distinctively the centre of the Chapter life.

Of the College honors won by members of the Chapter a complete list will not be attempted. While the system was in vogue that gave to men at Commencement positions according to their rank in scholarship, there is little doubt that more than her proportion was awarded to Alpha Delta Phi. That system has been abolished for some years, but the various prizes are so awarded as to afford to men of all tastes opportunities of distinguishing themselves in their several departments.

THE KENYON CHAPTER.

KENYON.

THE KENYON CHAPTER,

1858 TO 1901.

Annals.

"The Kenyon Chapter received its charter in the year 1858. Tradition tells us that we are chiefly indebted to old Yale for this blessing. The first meeting of the Chapter was held in the parlors of the Kenyon House, at which time our charter members were initiated by Brothers McDonald and Webb, of Miami. Succeeding meetings were held for a time in the rooms of the different members; but soon a hall was secured for the exclusive use of the Chapter. Not content with this, steps were shortly taken towards building a lodge, and soon the structure was completed, which is now owned and used by the Chapter for lodge purposes.

"The episode of most marked interest in the Chapter's otherwise adventureless life occurred in 1870, when the lodge was entered by members of two other fraternities. Entrance was effected through the floor by means of an augur and a saw. After gaining admittance, the intruders indulged in the most unscrupulous vandalism. The carpet was cut to pieces, and the furniture and a number of pictures destroyed. Fortunately no valuable papers were in the building at the time, so nothing was removed except a catalogue and some correspondence. The former was recovered immediately after its loss, and the correspondence was returned in 1879. It is satisfactory to add, in conclusion, that the offenders were speedily brought to justice through the efforts of the undergraduate members and the work of a skilful detective. Damages in full were recovered, and the culprits themselves were expelled from College."

Such is the outline of Alpha Delta Phi's history at Kenyon, as told in the Semi-centennial catalogue of 1882; and the life of the Chapter has been so devoid of adventure since that time, that there is little more for the present historian to chronicle.

Owing to the tendency toward university growth, the student body at classical Kenyon is small, and as a result the Chapter has never assumed large proportions. Her membership to-day is much smaller than that of the majority of her sister chapters. But this deficiency in numbers has only served to stimulate her energy, and the years which have passed since the Chapter was established have witnessed marked improvements. It is true that Alpha Delta Phi has no Chapter house in Gambier, but under the existing circumstances, the possession of one would be a misfortune rather than an aid; and besides, the East Wing of "Old Kenyon," set apart for her use, answers the same purpose. Her other home is the little ivy-covered lodge "beyond the campus," the same home which Murray Davis knew when he wrote Kenyon's favorite song, "When the Evening Shadows Gather."

In the matter of honors conferred by the faculty, and by the student body as well, the Chapter has an enviable record; twenty per cent. of Kenyon's valedictorians since our establishment have been Alpha Deltas, and forty-six per cent. of the graduates of the Chapter have been members of the honorary society of Phi Beta Kappa. Were the manner of distributing other marks of distinction such as to make the compilation of a prize list possible, it would be seen at a glance that Alpha Delta Phi has carried off more than her share of College honors.

The progress of the Kenyon Chapter, then, has been neither in the way of numbers, nor in the improvement of her outward condition; the active Chapter is to-day no larger than that of years ago, and finds no inconvenience in occupying the quarters which she held during the Civil War; but she has made valuable contributions to all the higher walks of life, and her sons, scattered all the way from Paris to Shanghai, have at least made their impression, each on the community in which he has lived. The radical changes and improvements made in her sister chapters, Kenyon's environment has made undesired and impossible for her, but she has nevertheless made healthy progress, and met with abundant and gratifying success in the pursuit of literature, the cultivation of friendship, and the preservation of the Fraternity's fair name.

THE UNION CHAPTER,

1859 TO 1901.

Annals.

Previous to the year 1859 there existed in Union College a local association known as the Fraternal Society. It was of twenty-five years' standing, of good repute, being held in especial esteem for the moral and intellectual worth of its members. The "Frats," realizing the benefits to be derived from an affiliated fraternity, and believing that the aims and principles of Alpha Delta Phi most nearly accorded with what they desired, determined to petition for a Chapter. One tutor and sixteen undergraduates signed the petition in the early part of 1859. On the 14th of June a charter, under the hand of Richard Salter Storrs then President of the Fraternity, was granted the petitioners. Soon after the Chapter was duly instituted under the auspices of the Manhattan Chapter, representatives from nearly all the other chapters being present, and Brother Ray Palmer presiding.

The first meeting was held on July 15, 1859. Notwithstanding the high standing of the graduates of the Fraternal Society, the election of many graduate members was not deemed advisable, and but four were chosen. With the establishment of the Chapter the "F. S." ceased to exist.

The thirty-first annual convention of the Fraternity was held in Schenectady, and the forty-second in the Senate Chamber at Albany, N. Y., both under the auspices of this Chapter.

At first the Chapter retained the old rooms of the "Frats," but in a few years obtained the pleasant rooms on State Street, occupied until 1896, when it removed to a temporary chapter house on Union Street.

The Chapter has never been large in numbers, but has always maintained a high position in all respects. Its alumni have been conspicuous alike for their loyalty to their Fraternity and their College. Their devotion to their College is best attested by the eminent services of A. V. V. Raymond, '75, as President of Union College, while they have left an enduring monument to their Fraternity, in the beautiful chapter house recently erected on the College campus, at a cost of $20,000.

The house has added to the old time vigor of the Chapter, and Alpha Delta Phi was never more distinctly in the front rank of the fraternities at Union than at present. Even more than in the past, they now enjoy that substantial measure of success which is the best guarantee of the future.

A partial list of the honors taken by the Chapter is appended:

THE CUMBERLAND CHAPTER.

THE CUMBERLAND CHAPTER,

1857 TO 1861.

Annals.

The Cumberland Chapter was organized in the year 1857. During that year the Trustees of the Alabama University, at Tuscaloosa, Ala., abolished all the Greek letter fraternities existing at that institution, thereby compelling the Alabama Chapter to suspend its functions. Thereupon two members of the latter Chapter, who were at the time members of the Law School of the Cumberland University, at Lebanon, Tenn. (Henderson M. Somerville, 1856, and Reginald H. Dawson, 1858), by authority of the Chapter and upon the advice of the graduate association, organized the Cumberland Chapter, and transferred to it the charter and records of their own Chapter. John Hyde Brady (1859) represented the Chapter at the convention held with the Miami Chapter in 1859. The legal status of the newly organized Chapter was not, however, fully settled until the next convention, and its list of membership first appeared in the catalogue of 1860.

At the breaking out of the great war between the States in 1861, the University, then one of the oldest, most celebrated and flourishing institutions in the South, was deserted by its students, nearly all of whom enlisted in the Confederate service; and its portals, like the temple of Janus in times of peace, were closed. The college buildings subserved only the purpose of barracks for soldiers of both contending armies, and the University did not re-open until after the war.

The Cumberland Chapter suspended its active functions in 1861, and this fact was recognized by the convention of 1863.

THE CORNELL CHAPTER.

CORNELL.

THE CORNELL CHAPTER,

1869 TO 1901.

Annals.

Alpha Delta Phi was established at Cornell within a very few months after the formal opening of the University, at a time when the importance and value of the fraternity system had been generally recognized by the educational world. There was no struggle with faculty officials or with the student body in establishing and maintaining the Chapter, but, on the contrary, Alpha Delta Phi was warmly welcomed at the new University.

Cornell was formally opened in October, 1868, and it soon became evident that it must take a high place among American colleges. Here was presented an excellent opportunity for the establishment of a Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi. Early in 1869 Brothers S. G. Williams, Hamilton, '52; Marcus Lyon, Yale, '52; Calvin D. Stowell, Yale, '68; Albert H. Esty, Yale, '68; Roger B. Williams, Yale, '68; S. D. Halliday, Hamilton, '69; and D. J. Brigham, Hamilton, '70, made an organized effort to obtain a Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi. The story of the trials and difficulties before a charter was obtained is but a repetition of the difficulties which every Chapter has had to meet in its establishment. In February, 1869, a charter was granted, and on the 19th of the succeeding month ten students of Cornell were initiated at the Rochester Lodge, the Cornell Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi thus becoming the fourth fraternity to be established at the University.

Meetings were held at irregular intervals during the succeeding month at the houses of resident Alpha Delts, until suitable quarters were obtained in the Wilgus Block, on State Street, which were dedicated on May 3d, 1869. The increasing size of the Chapter soon rendered the accommodations of this first lodge inadequate. Rooms were then secured in the Masonic Block, on Tioga Street, where it was possible for the brothers to obtain living rooms in the same building, a fact which added much to the early success of the Chapter. In these quarters Alpha Delta Phi continued to make its home from Oct. 27, 1871, until the Chapter moved into its present house.

The first initiation of the Chapter was held on June 4, 1869, and that date will ever stand out as one of the most memorable in the annals of the Chapter, for there were present at that ceremony Brothers Theodore W. Dwight, James Russell Lowell and George William Curtis, brothers whose devotion to the Fraternity is well known. To the warm and fraternal words of advice and encouragement spoken by them on that occasion, and to the zeal inspired by their presence, the Chapter will ever be deeply grateful.

In the fall of 1876 the project of a Chapter house was first seriously considered. To Brother William Ely Bramhall, '77, is due the credit of having originated the idea, and of pushing it successfully even when every other member was opposed to it. Even Brother Bramhall could not accomplish definite results till after the winter initiation of 1877, when Brother T. L. Mead became a member. Brother Mead aided the scheme so energetically that by the spring of 1878 plans were drafted, essentially those from which the house was finally built. The spring of 1878 was a time of great anxiety for all. There were days of the most sanguine expectations, followed by the greatest despondency; but finally the financial difficulties were arranged, and at midnight on the 10th of June, 1878, the Chapter assembled on the spot where the house now stands. The ceremonies of breaking ground for the new house were performed, and a feeling of confidence in the success of the plan took possession of all the members. Seven months later the house was occupied and the new lodge dedicated. It was not without some feelings of regret that the old lodge was left. There clung about it the recollections and history of some of the best years of the Chapter's life, and it was hard to part from it even for the more beautiful and commodious home in the new house.

Since January, 1879, the home of Alpha Delta Phi at Cornell has remained in this house. It was the first and for many years the only house built distinctively for fraternity purposes, and though there are now many such in Ithaca it can safely be said that there is none which affords more of a real home for its occupants. Its social value has been very great. On Jan. 24, 1891, a fire broke out in the upper portion, which fortunately was discovered in time to save the house from destruction, although the lodge itself was badly burned. Through prompt action on the part of the brothers no records were lost, and the lodge was speedily rebuilt, with better appointments than it had formerly possessed.

Two conventions have been held with the Cornell Chapter, one in 1873 and the other in 1886. It was a fortunate thing indeed that the first of these was held with the Chapter in that year, for there were but four members who expected to return the next year, and they needed all the enthusiasm which they had obtained from the impressive ceremonies of a convention made doubly interesting because held at their own college. The convention of 1886 was also eminently successful, and at its sessions important action was taken in determining the policy of the Fraternity along certain lines.

At the very beginning of the Chapter its members took a high stand in college life. One brother was a prime mover in establishing the Cornell Era in the first year of the University's existence, and his example in taking a part in anything connected with the interests of the college and the student body has been faithfully followed. There has hardly been an important event in the life of the University in which members of the Chapter have not taken a prominent part, and the confidence reposed in the members by the student body at large is strikingly shown by the long list of college honors in all departments with which they have been favored in each year of the Chapter's existence. Our relations with the outside world, with the faculty and with the students have always been of the pleasantest nature. At the close of its thirty years of existence, Alpha Delta Phi at Cornell looks forward with confidence to a prosperous future.

THE PHI KAPPA CHAPTER.

PHI KAPPA.

THE PHI KAPPA CHAPTER,

1877 TO 1901.

Annals.

The first steps towards establishing a Chapter of the Fraternity in Trinity College were taken in the spring of 1876. Negotiations were entered into with one of the local secret organizations of the College—the Phi Kappa Society—which from the date of its foundation, in 1835, had maintained an honorable position among its contemporaries. These negotiations extended somewhat over a year, and were not fully completed until the close of 1877. On the twentieth of December of that year the sixteen active members of the Phi Kappa Society met in New York with several of their alumni, and in a hall of the Masonic Temple were duly initiated into Alpha Delta Phi. On the following day a meeting was held at which officers were elected, and other steps were taken to effect a permanent organization. This, briefly, is the origin of the Phi Kappa Chapter.

Since its establishment the history of the Chapter has been one of continued and rapid improvement. The old Phi Kappa Society had possessed a hall in a large building in the city of Hartford, and upon the foundation of the Chapter this hall, with its appurtenances, passed into the hands of Alpha Delta Phi. It was, however, soon deemed necessary to increase these facilities; and, accordingly, a commodious ante-room was obtained and thrown into communication with the hall—both apartments being furnished in a tasteful and suitable manner. From time to time additions were made for the convenience and comfort of the members. In the spring of 1890 ground was broken on a lot facing the College property and the erection of a Chapter house begun. Since the completion of the house, in September, 1890, the Chapter has been very comfortably established, and the advantages of such a convenient and suitable home are yearly manifested. The Chapter's position in the College and the town is highly respected, its members are gentlemen, and worthily represent the spirit of Alpha Delta Phi. Some of the honors taken by them are shown in the following list:

THE JOHNS HOPKINS CHAPTER.

THE JOHNS HOPKINS CHAPTER,

1889 TO 1898.

Annals.

The establishment of this Chapter is primarily due to Brother Charles L. Poor, of Manhattan, 1883, and to Brother Bernard C. Steiner, of Yale, 1888. They were engaged throughout the academic year 1888-89 in creating a provisional society, whose aim was to secure a charter from the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

At the time when the establishment of the new Chapter was authorized, the provisional society consisted of seventeen men, four of whom were members of the Fraternity, at that time attending courses at the University.

The initiation of nine of the charter members at the fifty-seventh annual convention of the society, then being held at New Haven, May, 1889, started the new Chapter on its career.

Of the four charter members who were unable to attend the summons to the convention, three were initiated on the return of the new Chapter to Baltimore, and the fourth, then absent abroad, was initiated at the head of the delegation of the following October.

The fifty-ninth annual convention was held in Baltimore, in 1891, under the management of this Chapter.

In 1895 the alumni of the Chapter established an association which is collecting a fund which will eventually provide a Chapter house in place of that now occupied by the active Chapter, 1002 Cathedral Street.

In printing the Chapter roll it has been found impossible to classify the members in any correct manner depending on the year of graduation, owing to the initiation of both graduate and undergraduate students into the Chapter. The roll has been kept, therefore, strictly according to year of initiation or admission into the Chapter.

The honors won by our members during their academic careers are tabulated in the following honor list, and show that the Chapter has maintained a high standard of scholarship:

Fellows: '87-'88, J. S. Ames; '88-'89, J. H. T. McPherson; '89-'90, C. L. Poor, J. H. T. McPherson; '90-'91, B. C. Steiner, W. L. Devries; '92-'94, C. W. L. Johnson, E. F. Northrup; '94-'95, H. McE. Knower, H. S. Gane, E. F. Northrup; '95-'96, G. J. Laing.

THE MINNESOTA CHAPTER.

THE MINNESOTA CHAPTER,

1892 TO 1900.

Annals.

In the spring of 1890 a movement was first made among the students of the University to obtain a charter for a local Chapter of the Fraternity. They presented a petition at its next convention, which was referred to Johns Hopkins Chapter to investigate and report, but little or nothing was done. As a result, however, the local alumni residing in St. Paul and Minneapolis, at the request of certain students, now took the matter up and made a thorough investigation of all the men who desired to become charter members and selected from their number six, causing them to organize themselves into a local society under the name of Alpha Delta Epsilon, for the purpose of holding together until a charter could be obtained. A petition was then formulated, signed by all the leading alumni in the Northwest, and presented for the consideration of the convention held in Baltimore during May, 1891. It was acknowledged by general consent to be the strongest petition presented in years.

On Nov. 24, 1891, the Executive Council ordered the charter to issue. The men were initiated under the auspices of the local alumni in Minnesota, on Feb. 22, 1892. This Chapter was also petitioned for and endorsed by many of the alumni associations, including those of Omaha, Chicago, Buffalo and Cleveland, and as a consequence at the initiation there were present forty-three members representing sixteen different Chapters, whose members resided not only in the Northwest, but also in Omaha, Chicago and New York.

During the summer a Chapter house was secured and tastefully furnished. Owing to the fact that most of the leading fraternities had been represented in the University by local chapters for years, and had thus built up a strong local body of young alumni in the Twin Cities, an extra effort was required to maintain the high standing of the Fraternity; but always keeping before it as its watchword, "quality and not numbers," the Chapter has not only been able to maintain its own, but has largely increased its membership without lowering its standard, until now it occupies a position second to none.

THE TORONTO CHAPTER.

THE TORONTO CHAPTER,

1893 TO 1901.

Annals.

The fraternity idea progressed slowly in Canada, due probably to the fact that it is only in comparatively recent years that the attendance at Canadian universities grew so large as to make the separation of the students into groups for social and other purposes necessary, or, indeed, desirable.

The Toronto Chapter of the Alpha Delta Phi grew naturally out of the friendship existing among the founders. Though a great measure of fraternal sentiment had doubtless for a long time characterized their relations, and though the thought of cementing by the bonds of brotherhood the ties that bound them had already occurred to at least one of their number, it was not until early in the spring term of 1892 that the idea of founding a chapter of another fraternity at Toronto was first mooted. It was probably late in the month of February of that year that a conversation between J. F. MacGillivray and S. J. Robertson resulted in their confiding their plans to H. W. McClive, J. W. Bain and Peter White, Jr., whose sympathy and aid were soon secured. Correspondence with friends in the United States convinced those interested in the movement that the Alpha Delta Phi was the most desirable society with which to become connected, and a petition was accordingly presented to the convention held in New York, May 9, 1892. This petition was signed by five undergraduates and six graduates of those who were finally admitted to the Fraternity. The matter remained in the hands of a committee until the following autumn, when representatives from Toronto went to New York and met the Executive Council and a number of the resident promoters. J. Rudd, Jr., visited the petitioners in December, and after his return to New York a second petition, signed by nineteen graduates and undergraduates, was laid before the Fraternity.

In January, 1893, the petitioners organized themselves into a regularly constituted society and furnished rooms in the Bank of Commerce Building, corner of Yonge and College Streets, where weekly meetings were held, at which literary and other exercises were carried on. The petitioners were visited by a delegation sent to investigate their claim both before and after the convention of 1893, and were finally admitted to the Fraternity on June 10, 1893.

The initiation of the Toronto Chapter was carried out by the Columbia Chapter in the Masonic Temple, New York City, on June 10, and the first meeting of the Chapter was held in Toronto in the law office of Messrs. Macdonell & Scott on the 13th. The Chapter has been in possession of a house (leased) since October, 1893, in which from six to ten of the members have made their home, and there the meetings and the social life of the society have been carried on.

From the first, the Toronto Chapter of the Alpha Delta Phi has been prominent in every department of college life, and it has been due to the efforts of the Chapter that fraternities occupy their present position in the University of Toronto and have the official recognition which is now accorded them.

THE CHICAGO CHAPTER.

THE CHICAGO CHAPTER,

1896 TO 1901.

Annals.

On Dec. 17, 1894, six undergraduates of the University of Chicago met in Snell Hall, a dormitory of the University, and formed the Lion's Head Club, whose object, as stated in its constitution, was "to work and apply for a Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi."

All means towards this end were accordingly employed; especially valuable was the aid of the Chicago Alumni Association. The matter was presented to the convention of 1895 which met in New York City, with the result that that body voted unanimously to grant the petition.

Meanwhile, four more men, all undergraduates, had been admitted to the petitioning body, and on March 20, 1896, the ten men were initiated into Alpha Delta Phi. Three days later the Lion's Head Club was formally dissolved.

One of the conditions of the admission of the petitioners to the Fraternity was that a house should be furnished and maintained. A house was accordingly rented at the corner of 57th Street and Monroe Avenue, three blocks from the University, furnished by the aid of the Chicago Alumni Association, and April 1, 1896, formally taken possession of by the Chapter.

Since that time the life of the Chapter, though very short as yet, has been uniformly prosperous. The bad times that befall most have not yet been reached, nor is there any reason for anticipating them at present. The spirit of the Chapter grows constantly more in accordance with the ideals of the Fraternity; the opportunity of living together binds the men closer to one another; and with increasing knowledge of Alpha Delta Phi comes increasing love for her.

The standing of the Chapter in the general estimation of the University is high. While its history has been too short to enable it to present any list of honors won, it is safe to say that such a list may be expected in the future. Socially and athletically, as well as in matters more purely intellectual, the Chapter has done well.

THE MCGILL CHAPTER.

THE MCGILL CHAPTER,

1897 TO 1901.

Annals.

This Chapter, as a local society bearing the name Alpha Phi Epsilon, has existed since the spring of 1894, when it was assisted in its organization by the united efforts of some members of the Toronto Chapter, and Brother Herbert Brown Ames, of Amherst. The local society, composed of the petitioners to the Alpha Delta Phi, and those who were added to their number pending the granting of a charter, did good work by holding regular weekly meetings of a literary and social character during the collegiate session. The petition was presented in 1895, passed by the Executive Council and favorably reported on to the sixty-fourth convention held at Detroit and Ann Arbor, Michigan. That convention decided to grant the charter, and the matter was referred to the individual Chapters for their approval, all of whom assenting, the charter was granted in April, 1897. The initiation ceremony was held in the Scottish Rite Hall, New York City, on the evening of May 11, 1897, when five of the original petitioners and twelve of those added to their ranks subsequent to the presentation of the petition were admitted to the brotherhood of Alpha Delta Phi. In the fall of 1897 the first regular initiation was held in the Chapter house, 32 McTavish Street, and the remainder of the old chapter were admitted to ADP. The progress from the beginning has been real and earnest. This Chapter is the only one at McGill having a house in which the men live and where visiting brethren from other Chapters can always find a welcome.

McGill, though the youngest Chapter, intends, by the enthusiasm, energy and devotion of its members, to emulate Chapters of greater age and more varied experience.

*We sit here in the Promised Land
That flows with Freedom's honey and milk ;

Ah me ! Not all !*

J. R. LOWELL, Harvard, 1838.

ALPHA DELTA PHI

IN THE WAR OF

1861 TO 1865.

The Catalogue of 1882 contained a list, arranged by Chapters, of 685 names (4 being duplicated) of members of the Fraternity who served during the war either in the armies of the Union or of the Confederacy, these 681 being $\frac{1}{2}$ of the membership then eligible to military service. It was at first expected that this list, having served its purpose, would never be repeated in a subsequent catalogue, but in the process of compiling the present volume much additional information was obtained as to the services both of those comprised in the 1882 list and of a number who had been omitted. It has therefore been decided to print the list once more in its corrected form.

The number of names now covered by the list is 794, of which 8 are duplicated.

KINSHIP

KINSHIP.

The Catalogue of 1882 contained tables giving the names of fathers and sons, and of brothers. A hope was then expressed that future catalogues would include uncles and nephews, and cousins.

The present catalogue comprises the following lists :

1. Grandfathers and Grandsons.
2. Fathers and Sons.
3. Brothers.
4. Uncles and Nephews.
5. Cousins.

When relatives are of different Chapters the group of kin is entered under each Chapter. In lists 1, 2, and 4, the name at the head of the group is that of the grandfather, father, or uncle. In list 5 the name at the head of the group is that of the cousin common to all of those whose names follow, but the latter are not necessarily cousins one to another.

An explanation of the abbreviations used for Chapters and the pages occupied by each Chapter List will be found prefixed to the Index of Names.

COUSINS.

[Under each Chapter are given only the members of that Chapter who are cousins to the member heading the group, except that under the name of such head of the group in his proper Chapter appears the complete list of his cousins. The arrangement in each group is chronological, and not alphabetical, except in the case of three or more cousins where the name heading the group is that of the cousin in common to the others.]

Kinship — Summary.

SUMMARY.

The following enumeration comprises the number of distinct individuals in each branch of relationship; names repeated are counted only once as nephew, cousin or grandson :

[illegible]

LOCALITY INDEX.

LOCALITY INDEX.

The following list contains the names embraced in the body of the present work, rearranged by place. The general arrangement followed has been to give, first, the States and Territories alphabetically, under the general title of the United States; next, the divisions of British North America in the same fashion; and, lastly, "Other Foreign Countries." Places under each division and subdivision are arranged alphabetically. The orthography of the present list has been guided by the "Postal Guide," leading, in a few instances, to a departure from the spelling earlier employed. In none of these cases does the form below interfere with the alphabetization. Four places, no longer post-offices, at which deceased members of the Fraternity lived,—Farrowville, Va., Elmsford and Cortlandtville, N.Y., and Tuccoa City, Ga.,—are retained in the list below. In the case of several deceased members from the South the original county address as given by them has been retained. To those familiar with the condition of Southern society forty years ago it will not be surprising that a county was then considered a sufficient address by the member of some one of the few families between which its surface was divided. In the arrangement of names under each place, the conventional asterisk has been prefixed to deceased brothers. In giving street numbers, no one rule has been followed as to which should be presented, the residence (domicile) or business address. In each case it has been the purpose of the compiler to give the address which was most likely to prove permanent. A secondary address is sometimes given for persons living in small places but doing business in large cities, and in several cases, where a member of the Fraternity has two residences between which he divides his time, his name appears under both places. Where street addresses are given, a period, unless after an abbreviation, uniformly indicates that the preceding word is a street.

An explanation of the abbreviations used for chapters and the pages occupied by each Chapter List will be found prefixed to the Index of Names.

INDEX OF NAMES.

INDEX OF NAMES.

The following list contains the names of all recognized members of the Fraternity arranged alphabetically according to "Cutter's Rules." In some names, a correction has been made since the Class Lists went to press. Here, as in the body of the work, the names and parts of names dropped by the owners appear in brackets, while in the Locality Index and elsewhere these portions are omitted. In all such instances, the accredited name, which should be used in addresses, is that portion not bracketed.
